

The poster features two large, close-up portraits of the main characters. On the left is Emile Hirsch with dark, wavy hair and a serious expression. On the right is Stephen Dorff with a beard and short, dark hair, also with a serious expression. The background is a desaturated, yellowish-tan landscape. In the lower portion of the poster, there are three smaller scenes: a woman in a white dress lying on the ground on the left, a man in a dark jacket and pants walking away from the viewer in the center, and a man in a dark jacket and pants walking towards the viewer on the right. The title 'THE PRICE WE PAY' is written in large, bold, yellow capital letters across the middle. Above the title, the names 'EMILE HIRSCH' and 'STEPHEN DORFF' are written in white capital letters, separated by the word 'AND' in smaller white capital letters.

Pay The Price:

YOU CAN PAY THE PRICE! GODSWORD GODSWILL ONU,2015-03-22 God has different responsibilities and expectations from His children and Servants But we can pay the price He requires from us in order to perform and fulfil those assignments and expectations well The prices will vary for many people whatever He wants us to do or sacrifice in order to carry out His Work and Purposes let us do them no matter the cost Jesus Christ has paid the ultimate Price and Sacrifice for us But what God expects from us is the price of obedience to whatever He wants us to do in our different areas of callings no matter how hard or difficult they may look like knowing that God cannot tell us to do what we cannot do It is like Mary speaking to the servants and saying Whatever He says to you do it Jn 2 5 That statement is a very strong statement Our success in life and ministry is in Whatever He tells you to do do it Whatever God tells you to do is the price that you have to pay Paying the

Price Sara Goldrick-Rab,2016-09-01 A bracing and well argued study of America s college debt crisis necessary reading for anyone concerned about the fate of American higher education Kirkus College is far too expensive for many people today and the confusing mix of federal state institutional and private financial aid leaves countless students without the resources they need to pay for it In Paying the Price education scholar Sara Goldrick Rab reveals the devastating effect of these shortfalls Goldrick Rab examines a study of 3 000 students who used the support of federal aid and Pell Grants to enroll in public colleges and universities in Wisconsin in 2008 Half the students in the study left college without a degree while less than 20 percent finished within five years The cause of their problems time and again was lack of money Unable to afford tuition books and living expenses they worked too many hours at outside jobs dropped classes took time off to save money and even went without adequate food or housing In many heartbreaking cases they simply left school not with a degree but with crippling debt Goldrick Rab combines that data with devastating stories of six individual students whose struggles make clear the human and financial costs of our convoluted financial aid policies In the final section of the book Goldrick Rab offers a range of possible solutions from technical improvements to the financial aid application process to a bold public sector focused first degree free program Honestly one of the most exciting books I ve read because Goldrick Rab has solutions It s a manual that I d recommend to anyone out there if you re a parent if you re a teacher if you re a student Trevor Noah The Daily Show
