Peace In Our Lifetime Insights From The Worlds Peacemakers:

Convivial Worlds Tina Steiner, 2021-07-29 This book discovers everyday forms of conviviality in fiction and life writing from Eastern and Southern Africa. It focuses on ordinary moments of recognition of hospitality of humour and kindness in everyday life to illuminate the significance of repertoires of repair in a world broken by relations of power. Through close readings of specific capacities of living with difference, the book excavates ideas of world making, personhood and the possibilities of alternative social imaginaries from African perspectives. It highlights evanescent and more durable attempts at building solidarity across local and translocal settings by focussing on modes of address that invite reciprocity in contexts of injustice which include Apartheid, colonialism, racism, patriarchy and xenophobia. Putting current research on conviviality in conversation with the literary texts, the book demonstrates how conviviality emerges as an enabling ethical practice as critique and survival strategy and as embodied lived experience. The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of Literary and Cultural Studies, especially Postcolonial Literature, African Studies and Indian Ocean Studies.

Muhammad in the Digital Age Ruqayya Yasmine Khan, 2015-11-15 The early twenty first century has experienced an unrivaled dissemination of information and misinformation about Islam, its prophet Muhammad and its followers, largely facilitated by the fact that the tragedy of 9/11 roughly coincided with the advent of the digital age. In the first collection of its kind, Ruqayya Khan has compiled essays that treat Muhammad and the core elements of Islam as focal points in an exploration of how the digital era, including social media and other expressions, have both had an effect on and been affected by Islam. Scholars from a variety of fields deal with topics such as the 2005 cartoon controversy in Denmark and the infamous 2012 movie trailer Innocence of Muslims that some believe sparked the attacks on the US consulate in Benghazi, as well as how the digitization of ancient texts has allowed the origins of Islam to be studied in new ways. Other essays examine how Muhammad's wives have been represented in various online sources, including a web comic, the contrasting depictions of Muhammad as both a warrior and peacemaker, and how the widespread distribution of the look of Islamic terrorists has led to attacks on Sikhs whose only point of resemblance to them may be a full beard. These findings illuminate the role of the Internet in forms of representation, advocacy and engagement concerning Islam and Muslims in our world today.
