Peasants Merchants Politicians In Tobacco Production:

Peasants, Merchants, & Politicians in Tobacco Production Patricia Torres Mejia, 2000 Based on intensive fieldwork among the different social groups in the Ilocos region this book offers an insight into the Ilokano social ensemble following the process of tobacco production from seed to threshed leaves Routledge Handbook of the Contemporary Philippines Mark Thompson, Eric Vincent Batalla, 2018-02-19 The Philippines is a fascinating example of a poor country democracy where issues of economic development and poverty political participation and stability as well as ethnicity and migration are crucial The Routledge Handbook of the Contemporary Philippines provides a comprehensive overview of the current political economic social and cultural issues of the country The Handbook is divided into the following four sections concentrating on a different aspect of the Philippines domestic politics foreign relations economics and social policy cultures and movements In terms of domestic politics chapters discuss clientelism bossism dynasties pork barrel and corruption as well as institutions the presidency congress the judiciary the civil service political parties and civilian military relations The Philippines is confronted with many overseas challenges with the foreign relations section focused on the country's relationship with China Japan and the USA as well as assessing the impact of the Filipino diaspora community around the world Regarding economics and social policy authors examine industrial policy capital flight microfinance technocracy economic nationalism poverty social welfare programs and livelihoods The final section on Philippine cultures and movements highlights issues of customs gender religion and nationalism while also examining various social and political forces the peasantry the middle class indigenous peoples NGOs the left trade unionism the women's movement and major insurgencies Written by leading experts in the field the Handbook provides students scholars and policymakers of Southeast Asia with an interdisciplinary resource on the evolving politics society and economics of the Philippines Philippine Politics Lynn T. White III, 2014-12-17 Philippine political history especially in the twentieth century challenges the image of democratic evolution as serving the people and does so in ways that reveal inadequately explored aspects of many democracies In the first decades of the twenty first century the Philippines has nonetheless shown gradual socioeconomic progress This book provides an interpretive overview of Philippine politics and takes full account of the importance of patriotic Philippine factors in making decisions about future political policies It analyses whether regional and local politics have more importance than national politics in the Philippines Discussing cultural traditions of patronism it also examines how clan feuds localize the state and create strong local policies These conflicts in turn make regional and family run polities collectively stronger than the central state institution The book goes on to explore elections in the Philippines and in particular the ways in which politicians win democratic elections the institutionalized role of public money in this process and the role that media plays Offering a new interpretive overview of Philippine progress over many decades the author notes recent economic and political changes during the current century while also trying to advance ideas that might prove useful to Filipinos Presenting an in depth analysis of the problems and possibilities of politics and society in the Philippines the book will be of interest to those researching Southeast Asian Politics Political History and Asian Society and Culture □□□□□□□□□□□□□□□□ □□□□. □□□□□□ □,2010 The Politics of Expertise in Latin America Miguel A. Centeno,Patricio Silva,2016-07-27 The ascendancy of technocratic personnel and their imposition of neo liberal economic policies have come to define Latin American politics in the 1980s and 1990s This book is the first comparative analysis of these events and their implications for the future of democracy on the continent Individual chapters discuss the rise to power of these technocrats in Mexico Chile Argentina Brazil and Peru as well as the historical antecedents of expert rule in the 19th and early 20th centuries Asien ,2002

The Political Economy of Narcotics Julia Buxton,2013-07-04 This book explores the origins history and organisation of the international system of narcotic drug control with a specific focus on heroin cannabis and cocaine It argues that the century long quest to eliminate the production trade in and use of narcotic drugs has been a profound failure The statistics produced by the international and domestic narcotic drug control agencies point to a sustained expansion of the drug trade despite the imposition of harsh criminal sanctions against those engaged as producers traffickers or consumers in the narcotic drugs market The roots of this major international policy failure are traced back to the outdated ideology of prohibition which is shown to be counterproductive utopian and a fundamentally inadequate basis for narcotic drug policy in the twenty first century Prohibition championed by many US policy makers has left the international community poorly positioned to confront those changes to the drug trade and drug markets that have resulted from globalisation Moreover prohibition based approaches are causing more harm than good as is demonstrated through reference to issues such as HIV AIDS the environment conflict development and social justice As the drug control system approaches its centenary there are signs that the global consensus on narcotic drug prohibition is fracturing Some European and South American states are pushing for a new approach based on regulation decriminalisation and harm reduction But those seeking to revise prohibition strategies faces entrenched resistance primarily by the U S This important text argues that successive American governments have pursued a contradictory approach acting decisively against the narcotic drug trade at home and abroad while at the same time working with drug traffickers and producer states when it is in America s strategic interest As a result US policy approaches emerge as a decisive factor in accounting for the failure of prohibition Religion, Culture and Politics in Iran Joanna de Groot,2000-08-01 This book offers a new interpretation to the social history of religion in Iran from the 1870s to the 1970s It aims to situate the revolutionary upheavals of 1977 82 in an extensive narrative context of historical developments over the preceding century and to relate the religious elements in that history to other social and cultural issues In the author s analysis Iran s revolution was complex and contingent on a range of factors rather than a simple or inevitable outcome of the nature of the Iranian state or the nature of religion in Iran The focus of the argument is on the human responses of Iranians to their experiences and problems in all their diversity and on the rich variety and complexity of relationships between religion and other aspects of life thought and culture in the daily life of Iranians      Balkan Smoke Mary C. Neuburger, 2012-10-04 This fascinating book explores the history of tobacco and tobacco culture in Bulgaria from the mid 19th century when the country became partially and then fully independent from the Ottoman Empire to the postcommunist present Neuburger argues convincingly that smoking and the production of tobacco products played an important if not the key part in Bulgaria's political economic and cultural modernization during this period Summing Up Highly recommended Choice In Balkan Smoke Mary C Neuburger leads readers along the Bulgarian Ottoman caravan routes and into the coffeehouses of Istanbul and Sofia She reveals how a remote country was drawn into global economic networks through tobacco production and consumption and in the process became modern In writing the life of tobacco in Bulgaria from the late Ottoman period through the years of Communist rule Neuburger gives us much more than the cultural history of a commodity she provides a fresh perspective on the genesis of modern Bulgaria itself The tobacco trade comes to shape most of Bulgaria's international relations it drew Bulgaria into its fateful alliance with Nazi Germany and in the postwar period Bulgaria was the primary supplier of smokes the famed Bulgarian Gold for the USSR and its satellites By the late 1960s Bulgaria was the number one exporter of tobacco in the world with roughly one eighth of its population involved in production Through the pages of this book we visit the places where tobacco is grown and meet the merchants the workers and the peasant growers most of whom are Muslim by the postwar period Along the way we learn how smoking and anti smoking impulses influenced perceptions of luxury and necessity questions of novelty imitation value taste and gender based respectability While the scope is often global Neuburger also explores the politics of tobacco within Bulgaria Among the book's surprises are the ways in which conflicts over the tobacco industry and smoking help to clarify the forbidding quagmire of Bulgarian politics      International Journal of Economic and Social History ,      The Nine Lives of Luis "Chavit" Singson

 Linda C. Limpe, 2003 Chavit was an unwilling businessman who was called into public service This change in calling resulted in a controversial and colorful life as he battled for the survival of his province and his people and eventually what he perceived to be the endangered future of our country His different positions in government service as police chief councilor governor and congressman brought him face to face with personal danger and enemies from the ranks of close family friends and relatives This is the story of his life and it is my hope that we as a nation will learn to forget these power struggles and violence and focus instead on mutual love and cooperation for the benefit of all Filipinos P 4 of cover      Pilipinas , 2005
Merchant Capital, the Small Peasant Economy, and Foreign Capitalism Hon-ming Yip, 1988      More Than Books Juan C. Buenrostro (Jr.), 2004      Philippine National Bibliography , 1998      Peasant Society Under Siege Michiel Baud, 1991      Sanghaya , 2001      The Political Economy of Gender Elizabeth U. Eviota, 1992 Covers the period from Spanish and United States colonization to the present day      Conceptualization of Reality in Historical Sociology Hamid Abdollahyan, 2004      A Political Economy of Agricultural Markets in South India Barbara Harriss-White, 1996-08-19

Using data from a survey of 506 farming households in two villages of Coimbatore district of the Tamil Nadu state examines the technological and logistical systems defining agricultural markets Analyses the linkages between agricultural markets with money long and short period circuits of capital formation and profit labour including gender and land stressing the way in which power is institutionalized Discusses policy options relating to regulations technology and employment under contemporary conditions of market reform Links the findings to the central concerns of development policy such as differentiation and its socio economic consequences the role of markets in rural development and in the social relations and issues of institutional diversity and autonomy
