Critical Philosophy of Race Robert Bernasconi, 2023 The fifteen essays by distinguished philosopher of race Robert Bernasconi that are collected here demonstrate why the critical philosophy of race needs to take a historical turn Genealogies of the concepts of both race and racism clarify why some of the dominant strategies for combatting racism tend to be ineffective For example the Boasian UNESCO strategy that highlights biology s rejection of race neglects cultural racism Drawing on the work of Frantz Fanon the late Sartre and Michel Foucault Robert Bernasconi argues for a holistic approach that integrates the concrete experience of racism faced by individuals into the study of institutional structural and systemic racism His philosophical studies of such Black philosophers as Ottobah Cugoano Ant nor Firmin and W E B Du Bois contribute to challenging the dominant philosophical canon This volume will be an essential resource for scholars and students interested in this resurgent topic Peau noire, masques blancs Frantz Fanon, 1993

abolition of slavery across the Atlantic diaspora Why he asks did imagery showing the very instant of the birth of black slave freedom invariably personify Liberty as a white woman Where did the image of the enchained kneeling slave ubiquitous in abolitionist visual culture on both sides of the Atlantic come from And most important why was freedom invariably depicted as a gift from white people to black people In order to assess what the inheritance of emancipation imagery means now and to speculate about where it may travel in the future Wood spends the latter parts of this book looking at the 2007 bicentenary of the 1807 Slave Trade Abolition Act In this context a provocative range of material is analyzed including commemorative postage stamps museum exhibits street performances religious ceremonies political protests and popular film By taking a new look at the role of the visual arts in promoting the great emancipation swindle Wood brings into the open the manner in which the slave power and its inheritors have single mindedly focused on celebratory cultural myths that function to diminish both white culpability and black outrage This book demands that the living lies developed around the memory of the emancipation moment in Europe and America need to be not only reassessed but demolished
