Peer Violence In Childrens Residential Care:

Peer Violence in Children's Residential Care C. Barter, E. Renold, D. Berridge, P. Cawson, 2004-07-12 Much concern has been expressed about the scandal of physical and sexual abuse by care workers of children living in residential homes but this is the first detailed study of the major problem of violence between children Based on extensive interviews with young people as well as staff children's own perspectives and experiences of violence are highlighted There is important new information about different levels of violence between homes the significance of gender and group hierarchies and strategies to tackle violence

Bullying and Juvenile Correctional Facilities Nazirah Hassan, 2020

Exploring Child Welfare Cynthia Crosson-Tower, 2007 Overview Exploring Child Welfare provides an overall look at the provision of services for children and their families from services that enhance and support family life to those that substitute for the child's own home The Fourth Edition of this accessible and engaging text continues to reflect the author's strong practice perspective and incorporates new developments in welfare reform and child welfare services The author bases her work on more than 30 years of experience in almost all areas of children's services including protective services foster care adoption court services residential treatment and school based services What Reviewers Are Saying The writing style is probably the number one reason I choose this textbook I especially like the way the author incorporates the case studies into the chapter This allows the students to easily make the connection between the material presented and real life I have not had a student complain about reading this text Sandy Cook Fong University of Nebraska at Kearney The text examples cases are candid representations of child welfare systems client and or service circumstances and other valuable case histories that provide students the ability to develop professional competence and personal integrity As an instructor and professional within the human service field this text has become a valuable reference and resource tool for myself and my students Kathleen M Gutowski Baker College Strengths accessibility of material suitability for BSW students cases geared to generalist agency practice comprehensive but not overwhelming holistic orientation Karen A Ford James Madison University Insert MyHelpingLab Advertisement

Facing Forward David Crimmens, Ian Milligan, 2005 Designed to stimulate thinking and debate about the necessary purposeful and positive possibilities of group care for those who can no longer live at home this book is organised around their rights to care as well as within care It provides resources for investigating key aspects of theory and practice

Children's Safeguards Review Roger Kent, 1997 This text looks at the measures taken for the protection of children who are cared for away from home in Scotland This follows on from major and widely reported episodes of abuse The author a former director of social work was commissioned by the Minister of State at the Home Office
