Payback The Logic Of Retribution In Melanesian Religions:

Payback G. W. Trompf, 1994-07-14 In this ambitious study the first monograph on religion and the logic of retribution Professor Trompf shows how various aspects of payback both negative and positive provide the best indices to an understanding of Melanesian views of life The book explores the reasons why people pay back and opens up a whole new dimension in the cross cultural study of human consciousness The author conducts his readers through the most complex anthropological pageant on earth illustrating his arguments from western New Guinea to Fiji Religions of Melanesia Garry Trompf, 2006-09-30 Melanesia boasts over one quarter of the world's distinct religions and presents the most complex religious panorama on earth The region is famous for its unusual new religious movements that have adapted traditional beliefs to modernity in surprising ways As the first bibliographical survey to comprehensively cover the entire region Religions of Melanesia is an invaluable research aid for anyone interested in this growing field Trompf's work is a complete listing of scholarly publications and provides readable and concise descriptions that will clearly guide the researcher toward the most relevant sources This survey covers 2188 entries organized topically and regionally Trompf covers such subjects as traditional and modern belief systems and the emergent indigenous Christianity that has taken root Regional coverage includes Irian Jaya Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Vanuatu New Caledonia and Fiji New Approaches to the Study of Religion: Regional, critical, and historical approaches Peter Antes, Armin W. Geertz, Randi Ruth Warne, 2004 Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg 1973 and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling 1984-85 New Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades Many of the chapters however are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches The Palgrave Handbook of Anthropological Ritual Studies Pamela J. Stewart, Andrew J. Strathern, 2021-08-24 Ritual Studies have achieved prominence since the 1980s when interest in ritual as an object of inquiry was established bridging over a number of humanities and social science disciplines Both connected with religious studies and independent of it overlapping with social and cultural anthropology but also with history related to science and health practices and ranging across the life course to education Ritual Studies has come to encompass studies of change and dynamism in social life Rituals are determinate in form but not static They enunciate distinctive social values within specific contexts that frame them and they relate to the wider concerns and issues of their practitioners Due to this broad and wide ranging scope it is often difficult to find a single resource on Ritual Studies and even more so to find one which moves beyond the beginnings of anthropological theorizing to grapple with the present day contexts of ritual Bringing together recent ethnographies of ritual practice and ritualization from across the globe this Handbook provides case study of ritual in the light of Emotion and Cognition Identity Religious Power Performance and Literature Ecology and Ecological Disaster Media and other topics While each chapter provides a deep ethnography of a specific society ritual or ritualized practice each also engages with current theoretical and substantive approaches to the relevant topic The scholars collected here provide original synoptic and indicative pieces as guideposts and pathways through the complex varied and cross disciplinary and vast landscape of scholarship that constitutes Ritual Studies today and points to developments in the future

Transcendence and Violence John D'Arcy May, 2003-06-19 The first two parts of this book present four detailed historical studies filled with Geertzian thick description of the encounters of Christianity and Buddhism universal religions with a high quotient of transcendence with various primal religious traditions biocosmic or immanentist of the Asian Pacific region namely Aboriginal Australia and Melanesia Christianity and Sri Lanka and Japan Buddhism In each case the encounters represented a failure of the great traditions In the third constructive and theological part of the book the author shows how an acknowledgment of these failures may provide a back door to dialogue

Warne, 2008-12-19 Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg 1973 and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling 1984 85 New Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades Many of the chapters however are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches

Christianity Reborn Donald M. Lewis, 2004 Christianity Reborn provides the first transnational in depth analysis of the global expansion of evangelical Protestantism during the past century While the growth of evangelical Christianity in the non Western world has already been documented the significance of this book lies in its scholarly treatment of that phenomenon Written by prominent historians of religion these chapters explore the expansion of evangelical including charismatic Christianity in non English speaking lands with special reference to dynamic indigenous responses The range of locations covered includes western and southern Africa eastern and southern Asia Latin America and Oceania The concluding essay provides a sociological account of evangelicalism's success highlighting its ability to create a multiplicity of faith communities suited to very different ethnic racial and geographical regions At a time of great interest in the growth of Christianity in the non Western world this volume makes an important contribution to our understanding of what may be another turning point in the historical development of evangelical faith Contributors Marthinus L Daneel Allan K Davidson Paul Freston Robert Eric Frykenberg Jehu J Hanciles Philip Yuen sang Leung Donald M Lewis David Martin Mark A Noll Brian Stanley W R Ward

The Contemporary Pacific, 1996 The Great White Flood Anne Pattel-Gray, 1998 This book examines the impact of racist government legislation and policies upon the indigenous people of Australia over the last 200 years Anne Pattel Gray contends that racism in Australia is rooted in the long and corrupt relationship between government and church The persistence of racism in every area of Australian society is documented from government to schools to courts to churches and the illusory humanitarian and human rights stances of both institutions are here exposed Pattel Gray argues that racism is an endemic and chronic problem that must be addressed and solved Her book defines and clarifies racist terminology and language reviews historical and contemporary expressions of Australian racism and assesses both the concept and the recent process of reconciliation in Australia The Gospel is Not Western G. W. Trompf, 1987 Almost all the papers contained in this book were first presented at a conference held in the Brisbane suburb of Coorparoo August 10 14 1981

Acknowledgements Bibliography p 199 213 Traditional Religion in Melanesia Theo Aerts, 1998 There are various modern methods of an audience centered reading of the Scriptures One of them is an anthropology inspired approach which assumes that people from these parts of the world come to the Bible with quite a different set of presuppositions grounded in their own age old traditions This kind of approach goes purposely away from the well established kind of reading which is based upon past Jewish history ancient near Eastern customs and archaeology Semitic philology and so on But without denying the value of these essentially sound segments of learning is it really necessary that Melanesians should first plunge into Western academia in order to hear God's word Or is it no longer true that Greeks must not first become Jews before they can become Christians The articles gathered in Traditional Religion in Melanesia and its companion volume Christianity in Melanesia contribute to the goal just described They make clear that religion as such was not something that was completely new for the pagans of the past and that as a rule too they were rather selective in accepting the Christian message This accounts for some misunderstandings but also for some very positive ways of accepting Christianity Who's who in Australia ,2007

Encyclopedia of Religion ,2005 Sprache Adams Allison Coudert, Allison P. Coudert,1999 Arts in the Religions of the Pacific Albert C. Moore,1997 The vivid art forms of Australia Melanesia Polynesia and New Zealand are rooted in their religious cultures This relationship is still apparent in the new and ever evolving art forms of the modern Pacific world
