Peace Keeping Techniques For Africa's Conflict Management:

Peace-keeping Techniques for Africa's Conflict Management Emmanuel A. Erskine, 2000 African Peacekeeping Training Centres Anne Flaspöler, 2018-10-26 Peacekeeping training centres play a crucial role in preparing peacekeepers for their deployment. However, despite their popularity within the international community as a tool for achieving international security, development and state building objectives, they have not received a great deal of analysis or academic attention. This book provides an in-depth analysis of peacekeeping training in Africa, tracing how centres have adapted to the operational and normative changes of peace operations over time and raising questions about the expectations attached to these training efforts and their impact. The book examines training content and methods in detail, exploring the potential of peacekeeping training centres as sites for socialisation and diffusing international norms in an effort to change and shape peacekeepers' behaviour. The analysis is based on two contrasting case studies selected to show the spectrum of training centres operating in Africa: namely the Kofi Annan International Peacekeeping Training Centre (KAIPTC) in Accra, Ghana, and the African Centre for the Constructive Resolution of Disputes (ACCORD) in Durban, South Africa. At a time when impact is being determined by the number of course attendees, this book provides an important critical assessment of training efforts and what they are supposed to achieve. It will be of interest to scholars and practitioners within the fields of international security, peacekeeping and African development. Menschenrechtsschutz in Krisengebieten Dieter Janssen, 2008 Mit dem Ende des Kalten Krieges wuchs die Hoffnung auf eine weltweite Demokratisierung und auf universellen Frieden. Tatsächlich aber brachen in verschiedenen Weltregionen Bürgerkriege aus, in denen vorrangig die Zivilbevölkerung zum Opfer der Kämpfe wurde. Dieter Janssen gibt hier einen ausführlichen Überblick über sämtliche humanitären Interventionen nach dem Ende des Kalten Krieges, wie unter anderem in Ruanda, Somalia, Darfur oder dem Kosovo. Und er zeigt, welche politischen Debatten im Rahmen dieser Interventionen geführt wurden. Sind Militäreinsätze zum Schutz von Menschenrechten mit der internationalen Friedensordnung vereinbar? Diese generelle Frage nach der Legitimität des Eingreifens steht im Zentrum der Studie. Regionalism, Security and Development in Africa Ernest Toohey Aniche, Ikenna Mike Alumona, Innocent Moyo, 2021-04-29 This book charts the history and contemporary landscape of African regionalism, investigating how regional cooperation can be used to help to tackle security and development challenges in Africa. Africa has a long tradition of regional cooperation with the oldest trade and monetary integration schemes in the developing world, but its colonial period and partition have caused lasting damage that still be seen in today's African economies. Contemporary post-colonial African regionalism, deeply rooted in notions of pan-Africanism, has served as a means of collective self-reliance and economic transformation and development. This book starts with the history and theory behind African regionalism, before discussing and comparing regional organisations such as the Economic Community of Central African States (ECCAS), the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS), the Community of Sahel-Saharan States

CEN SAD Southern African Development Community SADC the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA and the East African Community EAC Finally the book considers how regional integration and cooperation can help to address security and development challenges This ambitious and broad ranging book will be a valuable resource for researchers working on African regionalism security African integration and development and comparative regionalism Policymakers should also consider it a useful guide to the background and contemporary landscape of African regionalism

Humanitarian Intervention and Conflict Resolution in West Africa John M. Kabia, 2016-05-13 The end of the Cold War has been characterized by a wave of violent civil wars that have produced unprecedented humanitarian catastrophe and suffering Although mostly intra state these conflicts have spread across borders and threatened international peace and security One of the worst affected regions is West Africa which has been home to some of Africa's most brutal and intractable conflicts for more than a decade This volume locates the peacekeeping operations of the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS within an expanded post Cold War conceptualization of humanitarian intervention It examines the organization's capacity to protect civilians at risk in civil conflicts and to facilitate the processes of peacemaking and post war peace building Taking the empirical case of ECOWAS the book looks at the challenges posed by complex political emergencies CPEs to humanitarian intervention and traces the evolution of ECOWAS from an economic integration project to a security organization examining the challenges inherent in such a transition

Pakistan, Regional Security and Conflict Resolution Farooq Yousaf, 2020-10-20 This book explains how colonial legacies and the postcolonial state of Pakistan negatively influenced the socio political and cultural dynamics and the security situation in Pakistan's Pashtun tribal areas formerly known as the Federally Administered Tribal Areas FATA It offers a local perspective on peace and conflict resolution in Pakistan's Pashtun tribal region Discussing the history and background of the former FATA region the role of Pashtun conflict resolution mechanism of Jirga and the persistence of colonial era Frontier Crimes Regulations FCR in the region the author argues that the persistence of colonial legacies in the Pashtun tribal areas especially the FCR coupled with the overarching influence of the military on security policy has negatively impacted the security situation in the region By focusing on the Jirga and Jirga based Lashkars or Pashtun militias the book demonstrates how Pashtuns have engaged in their own initiatives to handle the rise of militancy in their region Moreover the book contends that even after the introduction of constitutional reforms and FATA's merger with the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa province little has changed in the region especially regarding the treatment of tribal Pashtuns as equal citizens of Pakistan This book explains in detail why indigenous methods of peace and conflict resolution such as the Jirga could play some role towards long term peace in the South Asian region Historically and contextually informed with a focus on North West Pakistan this book will be of interest to academics researching South Asian Studies International Relations Peace and Conflict Studies terrorism and traditional justice and restorative forms of peace making
