Peace The Strategy Conflict

Lloyd J. Matthews

Peace The Strategy Conflict:

Strategies of Peace Daniel Philpott, Gerard Powers, 2010-03-24 How can a just peace be built in sites of genocide massive civil war dictatorship terrorism and poverty In Strategies of Peace the first volume in the Studies in Strategic Peacebuilding series fifteen leading scholars propose an imaginative and provocative approach to peacebuilding Today the dominant thinking is the liberal peace which stresses cease fires elections and short run peace operations carried out by international institutions western states and local political elites But the liberal peace is not enough the authors argue A just and sustainable peace requires a far more holistic vision that links together activities actors and institutions at all levels By exploring innovative models for building lasting peace a United Nations counter terrorism policy that also promotes good governance coordination of the international prosecution of war criminals with local efforts to settle civil wars increasing the involvement of religious leaders who have a unique ability to elicit peace settlements and many others the authors advance a bold new vision for peacebuilding

International Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding Strategies Daniela Nascimento, 2017-02-17 The analysis and interpretation of conflicts can be a dangerously simplistic exercise A western developed socio economic perspective can simplify conflicts in the so called Third World as the inevitable struggles of people who cannot coexist because of ethnic religious or cultural differences While acknowledging that many contemporary conflicts are characterised and influenced by these factors this book calls for an approach to conflict prevention and resolution which mainly addresses the underlying political economic and social causes The conflict in Sudan where narratives evolved from an interpretation based on religious differences between a Muslim North and the Christian South provides a case study through which the author explores how most prevention and resolution strategies were based on flawed assumptions leading to poor results By focusing instead on the underlying socio economic inequality and marginalisation among groups she analyses the dynamics of the complex peace process to ascertain if and how economic and social rights were effectively included and implemented as a part of the peace agreement including after South Sudan s independence WINNING THE WAR BY WINNING THE PEACE: STRATEGY FOR CONFLICT AND POST-CONFLICT IN THE 21st CENTURY Lloyd J. Transforming Conflicts and Building Peace Anna Åkerlund, 2005 Regional Peacemaking and Conflict Management Carmela Lutmar, Benjamin Miller, 2015-11-06 This volume examines mechanisms for regional peacemaking and conflict management in Europe and the Middle East To date little research has been devoted to uncovering the conditions for peace and the factors that contribute to stabilizing the state of peace This volume assesses the factors that contribute to regional pacification the incentives that motivate states in establishing peaceful relations and most importantly how regions become peaceful It discusses the conditions under which various types of peace might emerge on a regional level and the factors most likely to determine the outcome The book takes an innovative approach through a systematic comparison of two regions that are particularly prominent and important for the subject of regional pacification Europe and the Middle East While many believe that the European case is the indispensable model for peacemaking others believe that these two regions are too different for Europe to be a useful framework for the Middle East This volume occupies a middle ground between these two extreme positions It argues that while a mindless copying of European models will not lead to peace in the Middle East important insights can be gained from the most successful case of regional peacemaking to date This work will be of much interest to students of regional security peacemaking conflict management Middle East politics European security and IR in general

Little Book of Strategic Peacebuilding Lisa Schirch, 2015-01-27 So we d all like a more peaceful world no wars no poverty no more racism no community disputes no office tensions no marital skirmishes Lisa Schirch sets forth paths to such realities In fact she points a way to more than the absence of conflict She foresees justpeace a sustainable state of affairs because it is a peace which insists on justice Schirch singles out four critical actions that must be undertaken if peace is to take root at any level 1 waging conflict nonviolently 2 reducing direct violence 3 transforming relationships and 4 building capacity From Schirch s 15 years of experience as a peacebuilding consultant in Africa Asia and Latin America A title in The Little Books of Justice and Peacebuilding Series

SPLM/SPLA Update ,1995 The Role of Teacher Interpersonal Variables in Students' Academic Engagement, Success, and Motivation Ali Derakhshan, Reza Pishghadam, Anna Mystkowska-Wiertelak, 2022-07-05 1974 Annual Supplement Joan Schmitz Bergholt, 2013-12-21

Journal of Peacebuilding & Development ,2002 Aiding Peace? Jonathan Goodhand, 2006 While NGOs role in advocacy and agendasetting is fairly widely accepted their peacebuilding activities are more controversial and have come under increasing scrutiny not least from the NGOs themselves As the number of NGOs and their role in conflict situations has grown exponentially they have found themselves increasingly strained to find an appropriate balance between competing demands for relief development human rights and peace work and between their own roles and that of other international and national actors In this important study which is firmly grounded in seven case studies Goodhand ably situates the role of NGOs in peacebuilding within the dynamics of contemporary conflicts and the evolving complexities of international peacebuilding His study promises to become a valuable resource for the Peacebuilding Commission and other practitioners in their interaction with civil society It also stands to make a significant contribution to current debates about the appropriate role of external actors in peacebuilding and our collective understanding of what it genuinely takes to build peace

Medium Term Development Strategy, 2008 to 2010 Solomon Islands. Ministry of Development Planning and Aid Coordination, 2008 Peace and the strategy conflict William Roscoe Kintner, Conflict Management and

Peacebuilding Volker C. Franke, Robert H. Dorff, Strategic Studies Institute, 2014-02 The authors examine the utility of the U

S Government's whole of government WoG approach for responding to the challenging security demands of operations in Iraq and Afghanistan. They specifically discuss the strategic objectives of interagency cooperation particularly in the areas of peacebuilding and conflict management. Discussions range from the conceptual to the practical with a focus on the challenges and desirability of interagency cooperation in international interventions. Shared were experiences and expertise on the need for and future of an American grand strategy in an era characterized by increasingly complex security challenges and shrinking budgets. All agreed that taking the status quo for granted was a major obstacle to developing a successful grand strategy and that government, the military, international and nongovernmental organizations and the private sector are all called on to contribute their best talents and efforts to joint global peace and security efforts. Lessons from Liberia Erin McCandless, 2008. The Implication of Prevention of Conflicts for Justice and Peace Asega Primus, 2007. The author investigates the extent to which one can ethically apply the principle of prevention to conflicts as reflected in the pastoral letter Gerechter Friede of the German Episcopal Conference. He critically analyses the text of the second part of the pastoral letter, examines the outstanding controversies on it, reflects on the ethical meaning of conflict and prevention and finally attempts to apply his conclusions to the African paradigm of Church as Family. The investigation leads the author to the conclusion that conflicts are daily human experiences and may not always necessarily lead to violence. Besides, it is difficult to specify with certainty the point at which a particular conflict turns violent. Preventing them arbitrarily could be counterproductive. However, he agrees with Gerechter Friede that violence, especially war, can be better combated through undermining the logic of violence and counter violence rather than by its own instruments. Regional Guide to International Conflict and Management from 1945 to 2003 Jacob Bercovitch, Judith Fretter, 2004-11-23. This work provides information on the over 350 international conflicts that have occurred since World War II. Includes sections on each regional context, chronological summaries of each conflict and covering history, circumstances, players, management and outcome. Introduction examines global patterns and trends in international conflict. Peacebuilding in Postconflict Societies Ho-Won Jeong, 2005-01-01. This much needed integrative discussion of the multiple dimensions of peacebuilding in postconflict societies offers a systematic approach to strategies and processes for long term social, political and economic transformation. Ho-Won Jeong links short term crisis intervention efforts to a sustained process that encompasses the entire complex environment of a conflict. His broad analytic framework and wealth of concrete examples provide a sophisticated yet accessible guide to the many strands and interrelations in this critical arena of world politics.
