Peacemaking Struggle:

Elements of Peacemaking Revolutions Sapir Handelman, 2021-09-24 Intractable conflict is a protracted violent and long time struggle wherein generation after generation is socially conditioned to continue fighting To break the chain of destruction a revolutionary peacemaking process is required This book serves as an introduction to the study of peacemaking revolutions which are necessary to build a peaceful and well functioning society in desperate intractable conflict situations The challenge of peacemaking revolution is to turn opposing parties into a peacemaking community A peacemaking community offers political platforms to involve the different societal elements of the opposing parties in the struggle for change It offers a consensus building process that approaches the conflict from different sides dimensions and directions This book provides a fresh perspective to the study of destructive social conflicts their transformation and resolution It will serve to provoke a critical discussion among those who are interested in the new emerging study of peacemaking revolutions

The Calling of Global Responsibility Ananta Kumar Giri, 2023-03-03 This book rethinks and transforms the current discourse on globalization and global justice It expands the idea of globalization from an economic or corporate context to mean humanization and planetary realizations moving beyond the boundaries of nation states and other human made demarcations The author challenges the notion of human primacy and makes a fervent call to reconfigure the paradigm of anthropocentrism Through a careful study of movements for justice and inter faith dialogue from across the world the book makes a unique contribution to the emerging study of global responsibility It also helps us overcome our current civilizational crises and cultivate a new civilization of planetary care and co responsibility As part of the Ethics Human Rights and Global Political Thought series the volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of law and society especially social movements political theory and philosophy

Peacekeeping and Conflict Resolution Tom Woodhouse, Oliver Ramsbotham, 2000 This book is about the ways in which conflict resolution theory has become relevant to the challenges faced by UN peacekeeping forces as efforts are made to learn from the impact of the civil wars that have erupted in the 1990s

Conflict Resolution in the Twenty-first Century Jacob Bercovitch, Richard Dean Wells Jackson, 2009-09-08 In the past arbitration direct bargaining the use of intermediaries and deference to international institutions were relatively successful tools for managing interstate conflict In the face of terrorism intrastate wars and the multitude of other threats in the post Cold War era however the conflict resolution tool kit must include preventive diplomacy humanitarian intervention regional task sharing and truth commissions Here Jacob Bercovitch and Richard Jackson two internationally recognized experts systematically examine each one of these conflict resolution tools and describe how it works and in what conflict situations it is most likely to be effective Conflict Resolution in the Twenty first Century is not only an essential introduction for students and scholars it is a must have guide for the men and women entrusted with creating stability and security in our changing world Cover illustration iStockphoto com

The Presbyterian Pendulum Mark J. Englund-Krieger, 2010-02-01

The Presbyterian Pendulum is a study in mainline Protestant social ethics with a focus on the Presbyterian Church USA. This book is written for the church with the hope that it will provide theological foundation and spiritual encouragement for our efforts to find unity despite the diversity of convictions and perspectives in our midst. This is a historical study of the significant social and political issues to which the church responded throughout the twentieth century. With a foundation in solid historical research, this book offers the compelling thesis that the Presbyterian Church is at its best when the wild diversity of worldviews, theological perspectives, and convictions are encouraged. Even more, the book offers the spiritually rich thesis that it is in this wild diversity, not despite of it, that the providence of God is seen and known. What is unique and compelling about this study is the guiding metaphor of the pendulum swinging. The vast difference of opinion in the church around social issues has historically always been true, is necessary today, and itself points to a deeper truth about God's sustaining providence. The church must discern and hold onto that deeper truth. We must let the pendulum swing. It is my hope that this book will be an encouragement for the church even as we continue to be mired in deep conflict.

Christian Realism & Peacemaking Ronald H. Stone, 1988

Encyclopedia of Violence, Peace, and Conflict Lester R. Kurtz, Jennifer E. Turpin, 1999-08-10. The Encyclopedia of Violence, Peace, and Conflict, a three-volume set written by more than 200 eminent contributors from around the world, takes advantage of increasing worldwide awareness in the public, private, commercial, and academic sectors about manifestations of violence in all segments of society. While the contributors do not use these volumes to make specific arguments, they do describe and clarify the developments in thought that have led to current theories about and positions on violence and peace. Our reviewers consistently note that while many in-depth studies of war, peace, and aggression exist, the attendant specialization keeps scholars from learning about related fields. No publication competing with the Encyclopedia of Violence, Peace, and Conflict can satisfy their need for a vast introductory work to such a diverse and socially important field. This major work includes more than 190 multidisciplinary articles with over 1,000 cross references and more than 2,000 bibliography entries for further reading, which are arranged alphabetically for easy access. More than 190 multidisciplinary articles with over 1,000 cross references. Article outline and glossary of key terms begin each article. Entries arranged alphabetically for easy access. Three-volume set with subject index of over 750 entries. Articles written by more than 200 eminent contributors from around the world.

Peacemaking Douglas Noll, 2003. In his large and ambitious project, Noll weaves many strands of academic thinking about human conflict into an integrated view of why people fight, how they fight, what they fight over, and how they can instead make peace, whether in the courtroom or beyond.

Peacemaking in International Conflict I. William Zartman, 2007. This updated and expanded edition of the highly popular volume originally published in 1997 describes the tools and skills of peacemaking that are currently available and critically assesses their usefulness and limitations.

The Comprehensive Peace Agreement Sudan 2005 Julian Warczynski, 2008-06-02. Bachelor Thesis from the year 2007 in the subject Politics Region

Africa grade 1 7 Free University of Berlin Otto Suhr Institut f r Politikwissenschaft language English abstract The signing of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement CPA in Nairobi on January 9 2005 was described as a historic moment of great opportunity for the country by then United Nations Security Council President Joel Adechi of Benin The CPA received wide international approval and was praised as a promising chance to end one of Africa s longest and fierce civil wars Since the end of British colonialism in 1955 more than two million people have been killed and about the same number is said to be a realistic estimate of internally displaced persons IDPs during the course of Sudan s wars The main objective of this paper is to analyze and evaluate the current status of the peace process and the implementation of the CPA as a tool for peacebuilding in Sudan at a time where its success seems to be at serious jeopardy The central research question this paper constitutes has three main parts First the question is whether the CPA has the formal quality and extensiveness in its paperwork to effectively conduct a peace process The second part of the question is whether the implementation process is effective punctual and progressive with visible results that indicate a realistic chance for sustainable peace in the Sudan The last part discusses chances and possible reasons of a future return to armed conflict between the parties Due to the papers limits in length priority will not be put on thoroughly identifying and explaining the importance of all other armed groups OAGs involved in the conflict without failing to recognize their existence and importance The main focus will be put on the parties which signed the CPA as the official representatives of North and South the National Congress Party NCP and the Sudanese Peoples Liberation Movement Army SPLM A It will discuss and analyze the overall development of the peace process since the signing of the CPA in 2005 Central weaknesses of the CPA s implementation process are to be identified These key areas will be security instability due to the presence of OAGs issue of border demarcation the status question of Abyei oil revenue sharing and the general negative attitude towards the CPA implementation by the NCP
