Over the Mountains of the Sea David Hastings, 2013-10-01

Over the Mountains of the Sea is a lively well illustrated and very readable book that draws on shipboard diaries and archival sources to give a vivid picture of the voyage out to New Zealand during the crucial Vogel period Using information on individual ships voyages and passengers author David Hastings follows the narrative of the voyage and the way in which the space on the ship was allotted according to gender class and marital status He then explores the social dynamics on board dealing with the routines of daily life crime mutiny health religion and an interesting chapter on the virgins cage where the single women were confined He convincingly shows the ship as a microcosm of the society British migrants brought to these islands Over the Mountains of the Sea is generously illustrated with photographs sketches and magazine illustrations It will be warmly welcomed by genealogists professional historians and the many New Zealanders who enjoy reading about our history The Insider's Guide to Old Books, Magazines, Newspapers, Trade Catalogs Ronald S.
