Contemporary Arts as Political Practice in Singapore Wernmei Yong Ade, Lim Lee Ching, 2017-01-10 This timely collection examines the contemporary arts as political practice offering critical insight into some of the more controversial talking points that have shaped Singapore's identity as a nation Focusing on the role played by contemporary arts in shaping Singapore's political landscape as the country celebrated 50 years of independence in 2015 the authors consider how politics is often perceived as that which limits the flourishing of the arts Contending that all art is political and that all art form is a form of political practice this collection examines ways in which the practice of art in Singapore redraws the boundaries that conventionally separate arts from politics It critically examines the tenuous relationship between the arts and politics and offers a timely reevaluation of the relationship between the arts and politics In doing so it opens a dialogue between artistic practice and political practice that reinforces the mutuality of both rather than their exclusivity and redefines the concept of the political to demonstrate that political involvement is not a simple matter of partisan politics but has an inherently aesthetic dimension and aesthetics an inherently political one Queer Singapore Audrey Yue, Jun Zubillaga-Pow, 2012-10-01 Singapore remains one of the few countries in Asia that has yet to decriminalize homosexuality Yet it has also been hailed by many as one of the emerging gay capitals of Asia This book accounts for the rise of mediated gueer cultures in Singapore s current milieu of illiberal citizenship This collection analyses how contemporary queer Singapore has emerged against a contradictory backdrop of sexual repression and cultural liberalisation Using the innovative framework of illiberal pragmatism established and emergent local scholars and activists provide expansive coverage of the impact of homosexuality on Singapore s media cultures and political economy including law religion the military literature theatre photography cinema social media and gueer commerce It shows how new LGBT subjectivities have been fashioned through the governance of illiberal pragmatism how pragmatism is appropriated as a form of social and critical democratic action and how cultural citizenship is forged through a logic of queer complicity that complicates the flows of oppositional resistance and grassroots appropriation Collected Plays Two Alfian Sa'at, 2023-08-10 Alfian Sa at s The Asian Boys Trilogy is a fascinating insightful tour through the lives and loves of the gay community in Singapore In the campy and carnivalesque Dreamplay history is turned upside down as a goddess travels through time to save gay men from themselves In Landmarks geography takes centrestage as eight short plays explore the spaces that have been claimed colonised and trespassed by those at the margins of the mainstream In Happy Endings the playwright's adaptation of the novel Peculiar Chris evolves into a meditation on the relationship between life and literature With clear eyed compassion and eloquent outrage this collection of plays charts the coming of age of a community finding its voice The Faiths of the World James Gardner, 1858 The Faiths of the World James Gardner, 2025-08-30 Reprint of the original first published in 1858 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public
