Peerless Jim:

Axed Between the Ears David Kitchen,1987 A collection of poems and activities designed to win over the most reluctant 14 to 16 year olds Fort Lee ,2006 A favorite locale of such film pioneers as D W Griffith and Mary Pickford the historic borough of Fort Lee was the first center of the American motion picture industry Studios lined both sides of Main Street and enormous film laboratories fed the nickelodeon market with thousands of reels of comedies and cliffhangers Broadway stars and producers came here to make many of their first feature length films but by the 1920s Theda Bara Fatty Arbuckle and Douglas Fairbanks were gone Yet even after the studios closed down the film industry was still the backbone of the local economy with hundreds working behind the scenes in the printing storage and distribution of movies being made in Hollywood

Boxing's Greatest Fighters Bert Randolph Sugar,2006-01-01 Easily the most enduring of all sports questions is Who was is the best Perhaps in no sport is the question more asked and argued over than in boxing And in boxing perhaps none is more qualified to answer the question than Bert Randolph Sugar In Boxing s Greatest Fighters not only does the former publisher of Ring Magazine tell us who the best fighters were he lists them in order Could Sugar Ray Robinson have beaten Muhammad Ali Could Sugar Ray Leonard have beaten Sonny Liston The answer most experts agree would be no But what if as Bert Sugar has done here one were to take all the boxers and reduce them in the mind s eye to the same height the same weight and the same ring conditions The answers would be quite different And while some fans may express outrage that Rocky Marciano barely makes the top twenty and Marvin Hagler staggers into the top seventy five others will nod eagerly when they read that Harry Greb and Benny Leonard were better than just about anybody So whether you read Boxing s Greatest Fighters cover to cover pick your favorites at random or simply browse through the many rare photographs at the bell come out arguing Collected Poems 1950-1993 Vernon Scannell,2013-07-04 In 2002 Vernon Scannell wrote the following It has been my firm belief since I first began to attempt the art of poetry that the making of a poem should be as Yeats asserted a difficult business However I have always felt reservations about what seems to me the only partially true belief stated by both Eliot and Hopkins in their different ways that the meaning of a poem is of less significance than its structure and texture Eliot s nice bit of meat for the house dog Ideally the poem should be the perfection of expression of meaning inseparable from the methods by which that expression is achieved As Paul Val ry has said A man is a poet if the difficulties inherent in his art provide him with ideas he is not a poet if they deprive him if ideas That was an important statement his credo It can accurately be said that almost every poem in this collected volume bears testimony to it Although not covering the full span of his career Scannell didn t die until 2007 and was writing almost literally until the very end the body of his work is here and how impressive it is On immaculate display is a conspectus of poems embracing the narrative lyrical satirical and contemplative There are poems of pathos and comedy intelligence and passion whatever their form free verse or rhyming tenor or subject they are executed with unfailing craftsmanship In his obituary of Vernon Scannell Alan Brownjohn wrote What might have been considered unusual given a colourful even swashbuckling personality that spawned innumerable anecdotes was his fastidious procedure as a poet his unflinching focus on the age old themes of love war and death his concern for a real involvement with living experience Craft and care and for that matter clarity and accessibility were unquestionable necessities if you were serious about the art students on Scannell s creative writing courses were liable to be sat down hangover or not to write a sonnet after breakfast Scannell is one of what appears to be a vanishing breed a poet of technical accomplishment who understands that poetry like the other arts is a craft as well Charles Osborne Sunday Telegraph You actually want to go back and revisit the poems many times Their shrewd structures hold their elements firmly in place and they resonate also with the kind of humanity time is generous to Scannell has earned a place in the tradition of English poetry Paul Fussell Poetry Review accurate humane humorous often eloquent and always well made poems Anthony Thwaite Sunday Telegraph Swine Record American Hampshire Swine Record Association,1919 *East Sussex election.
