Making the Foreign Serve China Anne-Marie Brady, 2003-09-08 This book provides the first detailed analysis of a crucial and distinctive element of Chinese foreign policy Anne Marie Brady follows the development of the Chinese Communist Party's foreign affairs system since 1921 focusing on waishi the external policies intended to influence and control both foreigners themselves as well as Chinese citizens' contact with and perception of outsiders The term also comprises China's external relations both official state to state and so called unofficial or people to people diplomacy In effect waishi activities encompass all matters related to foreigners and foreign things not merely diplomacy By managing the foreign presence in China and China's contacts with the outside world and by controlling the Chinese population the author argues that waishi has proven to be one of the most effective tools in the CCP's repertoire for building and then sustaining its hold on power Drawing for the first time on policy documents that underpin the phenomena they describe Brady analyzes trends and developments in waishi during each chronological period The book elucidates how the CCP's policies evolved In the 1930s the need for a broad united front in international relations warred with the desire to control the foreign presence in China in the 1940s and 1950s the Sino Soviet alliance and ridding China of the traces of the semi colonial past took precedence in the 1960s the Sino Soviet split led to China's claim as the center of world revolution and in the past twenty years of reform the focus has been the ongoing quest to create a modern nation state as China opens up to the outside world The author considers waishi s deeper meaning as an overriding approach to the foreign which links state to state diplomacy with the management of the foreign presence in China Her groundbreaking research is based on a previously unexplored genre of waishi materials almost all classified in Chinese extensive interviews with waishi officials and foreign participant Jahresverzeichnis des deutschen Schrifttums ,1954 Most issues include also the sections Anschriften der Verlage deutschsprachiger Schriften and Verlagsänderungen im deutschen Buchhandel Die amerikanische Chinapolitik 1945-1949 Manfred Vasold,1978 Die amerikanische chinapolitik 1945-1949 vom zweiten weltkrieg Manfred Vasold,1978 Zeitschrift der Deutschen Morgenländischen Gesellschaft Deutsche Morgenländische Gesellschaft,1955 Vollständiges Verzeichnis der von 1906-1960 verlegten Werke F.A.
