Learning in Real Time Jonathan Finkelstein, 2006-07-21 Learning in Real Time Learning in Real Time is a concise and practical resource for education professionals teaching live and online or those wanting to humanize and improve interaction in their online courses by adding a synchronous learning component. The book offers keen insight into the world of synchronous learning tools, guides instructors in evaluating how and when to use them and illustrates how educators can develop their own strategies and styles in implementing such tools to improve online learning. A pioneer in the development of synchronous learning theories and platforms, Finkelstein catalogs real time learning venues, describes good practices for facilitating synchronous learning and offers examples to demonstrate how real time techniques can enhance student learning. While each chapter considers the academic context of faculty members looking to incorporate such interaction, the book will also be a valuable resource to instructional designers, trainers, tutors, advising staff, librarians and anyone involved in professional development, course design or providing student support services. Learning in Real Time is the fourth book in the Jossey-Bass Guides to Online Teaching and Learning series which offers concrete and practical resources to help higher education practitioners meet the challenges of the online learning environment. Good instruction is all about people. Learning in Real Time focuses on people, relationships and the power of human dialog. Instructors, learning technologists and administrators will benefit from Finkelstein's commentary and common sense. Diana G. Oblinger, vice president, EDUCAUSE. Jam-packed with
