Practice Focused Research Integrating Human Service Practice And Research:

Practice Focused Research Gerald T. Powers, Thomas M. Meenaghan, Beverly G. Toomey, 1985      Introduction to Social Work Lisa E. Cox, Carolyn J. Tice, Dennis D. Long, 2017-11-29 The best selling Introduction to Social Work by Lisa E Cox Carolyn J Tice and Dennis D Long takes students to the root of the social work profession by covering its history practice settings and career paths within a unique advocacy framework This advocacy practice and policy model comprised of four components economic and social justice a supportive environment human needs and rights and political access provides an effective lens for viewing today s social issues Throughout the book an emphasis on advocacy underscores the transformative opportunities and contributions of social work on not just the clinical client level but also at organizational community national and international levels The Second Edition closely aligns with the latest Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards EPAS from the Council on Social Work Education CSWE and references the 2018 Code of Ethics from the National Association of Social Workers NASW Through the authors inclusion of reflective practice students will be encouraged to engage in critical thought and contemplate a career in social work      Creating Small Scale Social Programs Barbara Schram, 1997-10-14 Built around a single case study Creating New Agency Programs clearly illustrates how to effectively plan implement and evaluate a small scale social program Each step in the planning process is introduced and described in a way that allows the reader to vicariously participate in the evolution of the program Useful charts time lines and resource lists are included and can be easily referenced and utilized This book s emphasis on planning is important not only because it is a much used and generally under taught skill but because successful planning is the process that can turn the dreams of a community into concrete reality This book is geared toward designing programs to meet specific social needs and organizing the relevant and human resources to implement them The programs are specific detail and activity oriented but are designed to support long range goals which may be handed down by a parent organization or the community in general The author s strategy of using a case study serves as a creative learning tool that leads readers through each practical step toward successfully creating their own small scale social program Filling the void of literature on designing programs Creating New Agency Programs is ideal for professionals and students in a variety fields social work human services clinical counseling psychology drugs and alcohol psychology nursing and management who are faced with the task of planning designing and evaluating a program      Interviewing for the Helping Professions Fred R. McKenzie, 2013-09 Conducting a successful professional interview is more than an exercise of technical skills The specific approach an interviewer takes with any client should be informed by the interviewer s understanding of the client s needs and preferences exhibited within the developing relationship Interviewing for the Helping Professions promotes a theory driven relational approach to professional interviewing across disciplines The author s aim is to organically illustrate the theories and techniques of interviewing within the context of building and utilizing the therapeutic relationship The author uses example interviews to illustrate the variety of settings clients and issues interviewers encounter Each interview is fully annotated with the theory and practice skills being exhibited The emphasis on theory allows the reader to fully understand the underlying principles of interviewing encouraging them to be present and in the moment with their clients This comprehensive book is an indispensable resource for practice courses in counseling human services psychology and social work programs Research Methods for Social

Workers Bonnie L. Yegidis,Robert W. Weinbach,1991 Policy Analysis and Research Technology Thomas M.

Meenaghan,Keith Michael Kilty,1994 This book examines policy analysis and research technology within the framework of the context and purposes of research The authors analyze the relations between intervention inquiry and the larger social political context Stressing values and ethics curriculum integration and emphasis on groups at risk they present an analysis of social political cultural and economic issues that transcends research methodology Research Methods in Social Work

David Daniel Royse,1995 Don t get lost in Research Methods succeed in the class with RESEARCH METHODS IN SOCIAL WORK This how to book includes simplified step by step instructions using real world data and scenarios Plus it comes with updated tools that show you how to create a research project and write a thesis proposal Every chapter comes with self assessment sections so you can see for yourself how you re doing and prepare effectively for the test Research at Grass
