Children and Their Families Vicky R. Bowden, Cindy Smith Greenberg, 2010 Children and Their Families The Continuum of Care provides a unique interdisciplinary perspective that underscores the nurse's role in planning, coordinating and working with all members of a pediatric health care team. It shows students how to make critical judgments and assessments to manage the care of children in a variety of community settings including homes, schools and medical centers. From infancy through adolescence, this text thoroughly covers the health promotion, surveillance and maintenance needs of children. In this edition, threaded case studies follow a community of pediatric clients and continue throughout the chapter to show the interrelated dynamics of pediatric nursing care. A companion Website includes journal articles, NCLEX style chapter review questions, a Spanish/English audio glossary, Watch and Learn videos, a fluids and electrolytes tutorial and much more.

Power and Doctoral Supervision Teams Terry Cannon, Alan Jenkins, 1990 Power and Doctoral Supervision Teams engages with the interplay of power generated through the way doctoral supervision teams are structured and how they operate in reality. The stories of experienced academic supervisors and late stage doctoral students from a cross section of Education, Humanities and Social Sciences teach us what theory and how to guide books cannot. By using the narrative of stories to explain the models, the lived experience of interpersonal power dynamics shows the promises, pitfalls, joys and frustrations of the various team forms. The book alerts the reader to the great variety of practices and the potential and hazards within. This book is an essential resource for doctoral research students to understand what works in team supervision for academic supervisors who want to look at options outside of supervision or readjust their current strategies and for academic administrators as they revise policies that apply to doctoral supervision.
