International Criminal Law—A Counter-Hegemonic Project? Florian Jeßberger, Leonie Steinl, Kalika Mehta, 2022-11-25 This book enquires into the counter hegemonic capacity of international criminal justice It highlights perspectives and themes that have thus far often been neglected in the scholarship on critical approaches to international criminal justice Can international criminal justice be viewed as a counter hegemonic project And if so under what conditions In response to these questions scholars and practitioners from the Global South and North reflect inter alia on the engagement with international criminal justice in the context of Ukraine Palestine and minorities in South Asia while also highlighting the hegemonic tendencies built into the institutional structure of the International Criminal Court on the axes of gender and language Florian Jeßberger is Professor of Criminal Law and Director of the Franz von Liszt Institute for International Criminal Justice Humboldt Universität zu Berlin Germany Leonie Steinl is a Senior Lecturer in Criminal Law at Humboldt Universität zu Berlin Germany Kalika Mehta is an Associate Researcher at the Franz von Liszt Institute for International Criminal Justice Humboldt Universität zu Berlin Germany

Lifetime M.S. Frings, 2003-04-30 Using posthumous manuscripts the author shows that Scheler conceived the origin of time in the self activating center of individual and universal life as threefold absolute time of a four dimensional expanse This serves as a basis for establishing the phenomenon of objective time in multiple steps of constitutionality including the physical field theory and theory of relativity

Media Materialities Iain A. Taylor, Dr. Oliver Carter, 2023-11-28 Provides new perspectives on the increasingly complex relationships between media forms and formats materiality and meaning Drawing on a range of qualitative methodologies our consideration of the materiality of media is structured around three overarching concepts form the physical qualities of objects and the meanings which extend from them format objects considered in relation to the protocols which govern their use and the meanings and practices which stem from them and ephemeral meaning the ways in which media artefacts are captured transformed and redefined through changing social cultural and technological values Each section includes empirical chapters which provide expansive discussions of perspectives on media and materiality It considers a range of media artefacts such as 8mm film board games maps videogames cassette tapes transistor radios and Twitter amongst others These are punctuated with a number of short takes less formal often personal takes exploring the meanings of media in context We seek to consider the materialities which emerge across the broad and variegated range of the term's use and to create spaces for conversation and debate about the implications that this plurality of material meanings might have for the study of media culture and society

The Denounced SJ Sherwood, 2017-11-16 In a future divided into Secular and Non Secular Quadrants a crime punishable by death is to cross Quadrants and become a Denounced When sixteen year old Ned is wrongly convicted and kidnapped to a secret location he meets ninety Denounced and a terrifying truth begins to unfold one that will change the world forever Forced to lead a Pod of five Ned begins to realise thousands of lives could depend upon him A survivor by nature he now has to face his past confront his destiny and fight a System that has never lost Education, Social Reform and Philosophical Development Richard Pring,2021-07-20 Reflecting on the meaning and purpose of an education at the mercy of political changes and innovation this book considers the social historical religious and cultural contexts that define education systems With a particular focus on how historical contexts shape the nature of education and its relevance to wider society it explores the history of education in relation to social reform economic relevance and raising standards The first part of the book describes the developing system of education within England and Wales from the 19th century with reference to the growing consciousness of the need for education for all The second part identifies key philosophical influences on the evolving understandings of education and thereby of the developing policies and arrangements made in the light of those understandings which they generated Finally the third part of the book revisits the aims of education in the light of the historical development and the philosophical critiques This book will be of great interest to academics researchers postgraduate students and policy makers interested in the history of education and the moments that have defined it Leadership Development for a Transformational Future Sheila M. Boysen-Rotelli,2025-09-29 An essential resource for leaders seeking to thrive in ambiguity this book explores the pressing need for vertical leadership development in a world defined by rapid change digital revolution and complexity Traditional horizontal leadership development focuses on skills but falls short in helping leaders navigate complexity ambiguity and exponential technological advances What s needed now is vertical development that emphasizes expanding leaders capacity to think strategically manage complexity and lead with empathy This book bridges the gap between traditional leadership development and modern demands by providing practical tools for vertical development and uniquely integrating digital coaching platforms Backed by case studies and insights from global leaders who have successfully applied vertical development it offers actionable frameworks and strategies and introduces AI driven coaching solutions to enhance leadership growth Ideal for senior executives leadership coaches HR professionals organizational consultants and postgraduate leadership students this book will help readers cultivate the mindset and skills necessary to succeed in a complex and rapidly changing world Transitions in Regional Economic Development Ivan Turok,David Bailey,Jennifer Clark,Jun Du,Ugo Fratesi,Michael Fritsch,John Harrison,Tom Kemeny,Dieter Kogler,Arnoud Lagendijk,Tomasz Mickiewicz,Ernest Miguelez,Stefano Usai,Fiona Wishlade,2018-10-18 At a time of extraordinary challenges confronting the world this book analyses some of the profound changes occurring in the development of cities and regions It discusses the uncertainties associated with the stalling of hyper globalization and asks whether this creates opportunities for resurgent regional economies driven by local capabilities resource efficiencies and domestic production Theory and evidence on socio economic and environmental transitions underway in many regions are brought together Implications of the shifting balance of global power towards emerging economies in the East are explored along with the consequences of urbanization in the global South for politics and democracy Dilemmas surrounding migration are also discussed including whether incomers displace local workers and depress wages or bring benefits in the form of know how new technology and investment More integrative concepts of the region and theories of regional development are analysed recognising the role of human capital knowledge innovation finance infrastructure and institutions This was originally published as a special issue of Regional Studies

The Nature of Things Graham Buxton, Norman C. Habel, 2016-11-16 In 2015 a conference on Rediscovering the Spiritual in God's Creation was held at the Serafino winery complex in the McLaren Vale region of South Australia The aim of the conference was not to seek consensus but to survey the landscape with a view to intentional responsible action in caring for God's creation Delegates were challenged to recognize their own worldviews and to widen their horizons to encompass the enormity of the transcendence and immanence of God's presence in all creation A group of leading international scholars and experts in the fields of science ecology theology and ethics participated in a multidisciplinary conversation on the spiritual in creation with the aim of discovering fresh horizons with regard to creation care liturgy justice and discipleship within the Christian community The chapters in this volume reflect the diversity of perspectives summarized in The Serafino Declaration which was crafted towards the end of the conference This declaration which opens the volume outlines a range of views relating to the presence of the spiritual in creation views that are both traditional and radical This volume highlights the current concern over ecological destruction and finds sources of inspiration in the deepest roots of our traditions and forms of spirituality to sustain efforts towards custodianship of the land and care for God's creation Contributors David Rhoads Paul Santmire Denis Edwards Bob White Heather Eaton Ernst Conradie Vicky Balabanski Celia Deane Drummond Mark Worthing Emily Colgan Dianne Rayson Anne Gardner Mark Liederbach Patricia Fox Anne Elvey Mick Pope

Causality, Meaningful Complexity and Embodied Cognition A. Carsetti, 2010-03-10 Arturo Carsetti According to molecular Biology true invariance life can exist only within the framework of ongoing autonomous morphogenesis and vice versa With respect to this secret dialectics life and cognition appear as indissolubly interlinked In this sense for instance the inner articulation of conceptual spaces appears to be linked to an inner functional development based on a continuous activity of selection and anchorage realised on semantic grounds It is the work of invention and generation in invariance linked with the rooting of meaning which determines the evolution the leaps and punctuated equilibria the conditions related to the unfolding of new modalities of invariance an invariance which is never simple repetition and which springs on each occasion through deep level processes of renewal and recovery The selection perpetrated by meaning reveals its autonomy aboveall in its underpinning in an objective way the ongoing choice of these new modalities As such it is not then concerned only with the game of possibles offering itself as a simple channel for pure chance but with providing a channel for the articulation of the le in the humus of a semantic and embodied net in order to prepare the necessary conditions for a continuous renewal and recovery of original creativity In effect it is this autonomy in inventing new possible modules of incompressibility which determines the actual emergence of new and true creativity which also takes place through the narration of the effected construction The academy ,1874
