Voices in Verses Farhat Hasan, 2024-11-21 This book opens up an archive of women s verses found in the extant but overlooked women s biographical compendia tazkira i zenana written in the nineteenth century As commemorative texts these compendia written in Urdu draw our attention to their memories celebrated and contested in cultural spaces In drawing connections between memory and literature this study contests the commonplace assumption that the literary public sphere was markedly homosocial and gender exclusive and argues instead that the women poets coming from a wide variety of social groups actively participated in shaping the norms of aesthetics and literary expression they introduced fresh signifiers and signifying practices to apprehend their emotions experiences and world views This work suggests that the women s tazkiras performed an act of epistemic disobedience contesting not only the British imperial representations of India but also the Indo Muslim modern reformers on issues of domesticity conjugal companionship and love and desire
