Cultural Representations of Queer Aging in Spain Heather Jerónimo, Raquel Medina, 2025-06-02 This collection examines representations of Spanish queer aging through investigations of literary and cinematic representations of this demographic offering a showcase for research on communities often made invisible due to age and sexual identity in Spanish culture with wider implications for queer aging studies research The volume builds on theoretical foundations established by queer aging studies scholars and the ways in which queer aging differs from heterosexual aging examining negative topics that arise in literature and film such as the AIDS crisis the silencing of queer aging individuals and social stigmas against this group in addition to positive topics like the creation of communities and spaces for queer aging characters Chapters are structured in conversation with one another about key themes in depictions of queer aging in Spanish culture Several chapters examine such topics as the aging body stereotypes and discrimination old age tropes and queer invisibility while others highlight positive representations in exploring the importance of the connection to home family and community spaces for queer communities The collection represents a critical step in future work on queer aging to take future research beyond the Spanish context to extend to new geographic and disciplinary borders This book will be of interest to scholars in aging studies gerontology studies queer theory health humanities and Spanish literature and culture Hojeando--- José Arturo Rodríguez Núñez, 2008 La exposición se enmarca dentro de la Tercera Bienal Internacional de Libro de Artista que se celebra en la Biblioteca de Alejandra y presenta una visión general de estas publicaciones producidas en España por diferentes artistas desde los años sesenta hasta la actualidad Buying Into Change Alejandro J. Gómez del Moral, 2021-05 2023 Hagley Prize for Best Book in Business History Buying into Change examines how the development of a mass consumer society under the dictatorship of General Francisco Franco 1939-1975 inserted Spain into transnational consumer networks and set the stage for Spain's transition to democracy during the late 1970s This transition is broadly significant to both a Spanish public still struggling to redefine their society after Franco and to scholars who have long debated the origins of Spain's current democracy yet many aspects of it remain largely unexamined Buying into Change incorporates mass consumption into our understanding of Spain's democratic transition by tracing the spread and social impact of new foreign influenced department stores of imported innovations such as modern mass advertising and of consumer magazines that promoted foreign products Initially these enterprises backed Franco's conservative policies and the regime in turn encouraged consumption in order to improve its image both domestically and abroad Spain's new globally oriented commerce ultimately sold retailers and shoppers not just foreign ways of buying and selling but also subversive ideas Imported 1960s fashions brought along countercultural notions on issues such as gender equality And as Spaniards consumed more like their foreign neighbors they increasingly viewed themselves as cosmopolitan and European and identified with liberal political conditions abroad undermining Francoism's doctrine of national exceptionalism thus laying
