A Short History of Manning Clark Stephen Holt, 1999 A lively up to the minute account of a controversial Australian

Manning Clark. A Short History of Australia Manning Clark, 1964 Biography: An Historiography Melanie Nolan, 2023-04-03 Biography An Historiography examines how Western historians have used biography from the nineteenth century to the present considering the problems and challenges that historians have faced in their biographical practice systematically This volume analyses the strategies and methods that historians have used in response to seven major issues identified over time to do with evidence including but not limited to the problem of causation the problem of fact and fiction the problem of other minds the problem of significance or representativeness the problems of perspective both macro and micro and the problem of subjectivity and relative truth This volume will be essential for both postgraduates and historians studying biography A Short History of Australia Charles Manning Hope Clark, 1963 History of Australia Manning Clark, 1993 In 1962 the first volume of Manning Clark's A History of Australia appeared For the next two and a half decades Clark unfolded his tragic celebration of white Australian history Today the six volume history is one of the masterpieces of Australian literature It is also one of the most passionately debated visions of Australian history Clark's Australians are men and women of lively goodwill and deep sinfulness of generous idealism and unthinking brutality He dramatizes the motivating forces of Australian life cowardice and vision cruelty and defiance greatness of spirit and the spiritual vacuity of the suburbs all of them locked in the unceasing struggle which builds a nation Michael Cathcart has reorchestrated Clark's epic narrative in this single volume Every page of this abridgement rings with Manning Clark's voice Here at last the general reader can encounter the deep resonances pessimism and passion of Manning Clark Australian historian and prophet Michael Cathcart is co author of Mission to the South Seas the Voyage of the Duff and author of Defending the National Tuckshop a study of conservative responses to the Great Depression Historian's Life Fay Anderson, 2017-04-28 Max Crawford was one of Australia's pre eminent historians As both a participant in and observer of many decisive episodes of the era Europe in the midst of the Depression America and Russia at the height of World War II post war reconstruction and the Cold War in Australia Crawford was regarded as a radical and outspoken defender of intellectual autonomy This biography considers Crawford as an historian and a public intellectual It relates his experiences as a student at Sydney and Oxford a struggling teacher during the Depression as the head of the History School at the University of Melbourne a diplomat in wartime Russia and a Cold War victim and accuser The study of Crawford's life provides insight into one man's experience in the midst of political turmoil and the limits of intellectual autonomy on Australian campuses as well as the suspicion of liberal intellectuals in Australian public life the repression of academic radicals and ASIO's attempts to stifle dissident voices Spanning his life 1906 1991 Crawford's political and intellectual journey suggests the changing nature of Australian progressive liberalism and the precarious state of academic freedom A Short History of Australia Charles Manning
