Sheridans Lieutenants Phil Sheridan His Generals And The Final Year Of The Civil War:

Sheridan's Lieutenants David Coffey, 2005 In this exciting new work David Coffey explores Sheridan's relationships with his subordinates and their substantial role in shaping the final year of the Civil War Parameters, 1994 Our Youth, 1888 The United States Army and Navy Journal and Gazette of the Regular and Volunteer Forces, 1867 The Greatest Trials I Ever Had Ryan W. Keating, 2017-11 This edited collection of Civil War correspondence between Col Thomas Cahill and his wife Margaret offers a rare glimpse into the symbiotic relationship between soldiers and their home communities In the only substantial extant collection of letters from an Irish American woman on the northern home front Margaret's pivotal role as a go-between in the financial affairs of men in the regiment and their wives is made evident as is the broader interplay between the community of New Haven Connecticut and the regiment The couple's correspondence was nearly constant in their four years apart There is an inherent intimacy in the way that daily life during the Civil War is documented and in particular in the gradual revelation of the emotional toll taken by a long distance relationship Because the volume includes letters from both Cahill and his wife the interplay between the regiment and the home front is traced in a way most collections are not able to achieve This lively correspondence provides a great introduction to primary source reading for students of the Civil War home front These teaching opportunities will be supplemented by a companion website that features more correspondence maps and additional learning materials American Military Leaders: M-Z John C.
