In the K-2 section, for example, a number of craft lessons focus on the all-about or concept book. In the 3-4 section, there are several lessons on biography. In the 5-8 section, a series of lessons addresses expository writing. Throughout the book, each of the 80 lessons is presented on a single page in an easy-to-read format. Every lesson features three teaching guidelines: Discussion, A brief look at the reasons for teaching the particular element of craft specifically in a nonfiction context; How to Teach It, Concrete language showing exactly how a teacher might bring this craft element to students in writing conferences or a small group setting; Resource Material, Specific book or text referred to in the craft lesson, including trade books or a piece of student writing in the Appendixes. This book will help students breathe voice into lifeless dump-truck writing and improve their nonfiction writing by making it clearer, more authoritative, and more organized. Nonfiction Craft Lessons gives teachers a wealth of practical strategies to help students grow into strong writers as they explore and explain the world around them. Environmental Disasters Michael Woods, Mary B. She knows a lot about planets. She could name all the moons of Jupiter or tell you the dimensions of the Great Red Spot, but she doesn't know much about love. She's so used to pleasing other people that she has lost track of how to be herself. And now there's no one close enough to help her; her boyfriend is way out of reach, her mother is distracted by sad ladies, and her dad well, his motto is "be prepared," which is exactly what Cally wasn't. But in her struggle, Cally finds courage enough to fight through the fog of secrecy and silence that's suffocating her family. Borrowed Light is an intensely honest, painful, funny book.
