Jeffers Studies, 1999 Crises in Continental Philosophy Arleen B. Dallery, Charles E. Scott, 1990-10-02 This book punctuates the moments of crisis in continental thought from the foundational crisis of reason in Husserl's call for a rigorous science of phenomenology to the current crisis of postmodernism and its rejection of Husserl's metanarrative of history and rationality. The mediating links between these moments is the centrality of the epochal history of Being, the power of cultural and disciplinary practices and the dispersal of meaning in the post-Husserlian and post-subjective philosophies of Heidegger, Foucault, Derrida and others. Included here are the thoughts of leading scholars who critically discuss Husserl's analysis of the crisis of Western thought and the importance of the concepts of world in Husserl's early writings. The authors analyze the deprivileging of philosophy as social critique through the text of Husserl, Habermas, Foucault and recent feminist theory. They examine the end of the epistemological and morally autonomous subject in continental thought. Together these thoughts articulate multiple points or moments of crisis without cure or end.
