Shipwreck Courage And Endurance In The Southern Seas:

Shipwreck! Jose Burman, 1986      Navigating African Maritime History Carina E. Ray, Jeremy Rich, 2017-10-18 This book is a collection of essays addressing multiple aspects of African maritime history in attempt to counter the lack of academic research that exists in comparison to other nations and continents and to assert the value of African topics to the global study of maritime history Each essay addresses African maritime history whilst also demonstrating an inextricable link to the global maritime stage The topics discussed include early human migration to Africa early European contact with Africa the role of West African maritime communities in the Atlantic slave trade New World slaveholders and the exploitation of African maritime skillsets the construction of Atlantic world racial discourses the rise and fall of colonial rule and African immigrant communities in Europe These essays cover maritime topics such as seafaring labour navigational technology swimming diving surfing plus political subjects that include colonisation decolonisation immigration and citizenship The book consists of eight essays and an introduction that evaluates the existing research into African maritime history It includes case studies from every major geographical part of the continent bar North Africa and covers the Early Modern period up to the twentieth century The purpose is not to provide a comprehensive chronological history but rather a diverse collection of topics across a range of periods and locations to reflect the wealth of maritime topics in the history of Africa and their global significance It concludes with a call for further research into non European maritime activity to deepen the global historiography      Of Warriors, Lovers and Prophets Max du Preez, 2010-11-05 South African history will never be the same again Shunning the predictable Max du Preez has put on his investigative journalist s cap and examined our past from a fresh perspective The result is a collection of extraordinary and mostly unknown stories all meticulously researched and written in an engaging and lively style Instead of regurgitating the story of Jan van Riebeeck s arrival at the Cape he tells the tales of a Portuguese viscount killed on a Cape beach in 1510 of the Khoikhoi chief who was kidnapped and taken to England in 1610 and of the saucy goings on between slave women and their European settler lovers There s the story of King Moshoeshoe s remarkable conduct when cannibals ate his beloved grandfather and Shaka s sexuality is explored via his relationship with his mother and the woman who loved him without ever touching him Sidestepping the old clichés about the Anglo Boer War Du Preez recounts the story of an Afrikaner broedertwis General Christiaan de Wet and his brother Piet who joined the British forces and fought his own people The reader is taken through every stage of our history up to the story of apartheid South Africa s nuclear bombs and the secret dealings and intrigue during the negotiations leading up to the 1994 elections This is South African history as you ve never seen it before a colourful mosaic of our rich heritage      Forgotten Shipwrecks of the Western Cape Michael Walker, 2007      Kwartaalblad Van Die Suid-Afrikaanse Biblioteek South African Library, 1986      The Knysna Castaways Ian S.
