Shirley Chisholm Teacher And Congresswoman:

Shirley Chisholm, Teacher and Congresswoman Catherine Scheader,1990 A biography of the first black woman to run for president of the United States

Children's Biographies of African American Women Sara C. VanderHaagen,2018-11-15 A study of how rhetoric has shaped the life stories of African American role models in children s literature In Children s Biographies of African American Women Rhetoric Public Memory and Agency Sara C VanderHaagen examines how these biographies encourage young readers to think about themselves as agents in a public world Specifically VanderHaagen illustrates how these works use traditional means to serve progressive ends and thereby examines the rhetorical power of biography in shaping identity and promoting public action Drawing on scholarship in rhetoric memory studies and children s literature VanderHaagen presents rhetorical analyses of biographies of three African American women poet Phillis Wheatley activist Sojourner Truth and educator turned politician Shirley Chisholm published in the United States during the twentieth and twenty first centuries VanderHaagen begins by analyzing how biographical sketches in books for black children published during the 1920s represent Wheatley and Truth The study then shifts to books published between 1949 and 2015 VanderHaagen uses a concept adapted from philosopher Paul Ricoeur the idea of the agential spiral to chart the ways that biographies have used rhetoric to shape the life stories of Wheatley Truth and Chisholm By bringing a critical rhetorical perspective to the study of biographies for children this book advances the understanding of how lives of the past are used persuasively to shape identity and encourage action in the contemporary public world VanderHaagen contributes to the study of rhetoric and African American children s literature and refocuses the field of memory studies on children s biographies a significant but often overlooked genre through which public memories first take shape

Liberation and the Cosmos Barbara A. Holmes,2023-02-28 The rich legacy of black critical thought creative expression and religious reflection come together in these creatively imagined conversations between the elders about the shape and conditions of Black liberation Barbara A Holmes has defined key issues of freedom and identity hypothesizing a meeting of the ancestors assembled on the other side to discuss them Imagine a conversation between Barbara Jordan and Thurgood Marshall on what freedom looks like in relation to law and politics Or between Tupac Shakur Nina Simone and James Baldwin on art culture and liberation Malcolm X and Harriet Tubman discuss freedom and wholeness while Audre Lorde Fannie Lou Hamer and George Washington Carver talk about liberated bodies These imagined dialogues open up rich reflection and insight and offer a unique vantage point for understanding the luminaries of liberation down through the generations An important resource for the contemporary task of Black liberation

Biographical Supplement and Index David M. P. Freund,Marya Annette McQuirter,1997-04-24 The 10 volumes of The Young Oxford History of African Americans describe how black Americans shaped and changed the history of this nation Starting in 1502 more than a century before the day in 1619 when 19 Africans stepped off a Dutch ship in Jamestown Virginia the series ends with the relationship between West Indian immigrants and African Americans in large cities like New York in the late 20th century This ready reference provides the perfect ending to a comprehensive history of African Americans Included are the master index for the series and an extensive list of historic sites and museums related to the history of African Americans The bulk of the volume however contains the personal histories of many of the people who appear in the previous 10 volumes Each biography takes a close look at the famous and the lesser known revealing the backgrounds experiences and contributions of African Americans who were involved in the key events in American history In addition to well known facts the biographies include much here that will surprise and fascinate readers Muhammad Ali s brash and playful public persona earned him the nickname the Louisville Lip Bill Cosby got his start while working in a Philadelphia coffee house and Madam C J Walker owned a mail order and beauty school company that became one of the most profitable independently owned businesses in the country around 1910 The portraits are as varied as the history itself setting former slaves next to committed civil rights workers prize winning poets next to successful politicians Volume 11 of The Young Oxford History of African Americans completes the fascinating and compelling story of nearly five centuries of African American history It is an exceptional resource for young adults and all who value the remarkable accomplishments of African Americans

Selected and edited by renowned women's historian Carol Berkin these brief biographies are designed for use in undergraduate courses. Rather than a comprehensive approach each biography focuses instead on a particular aspect of a woman's life that is emblematic of her time or which made her a pivotal figure in the era. The emphasis is on a good read featuring accessible writing and compelling narratives without sacrificing sound scholarship and academic integrity. Primary sources at the end of each biography reveal the subject's perspective in her own words. Study questions and an annotated bibliography support the student reader.

Notable Black American Women Jessie Carney Smith, 1992 Biographical essays on 500 Afro American women that combine life histories with information on the key people, places, institutions, and events that have had an impact on these women.

Female Leaders Richard Scott Rennert, 1993 This collection of biographies briefly portrays the lives of eight black American women who dedicated themselves to the struggle for freedom and equality. Political leaders, civil rights activists, a journalist, and an entrepreneur, this courageous octet shares a common dedication to making America fulfill its promise of liberty and justice for all. Their life stories demonstrate that there is no limit to what any individual, regardless of race or sex, can achieve.

Whose Tale Is True? Nancy Polette, 2008-10-30 This new book by Nancy Polette offers 49 short biographical readers theatre plays consisting of three performers discussing the same life but with slightly different information. It requires students to use their critical thinking, listening, and research skills to determine which of the three tales is true. Each play is accompanied by a short reading list of coordinated children's books and a student research activity. The plays feature women from the eighteenth, nineteenth, and twentieth centuries, including minority group representatives Molly Brown, Barbara Jordan, Rosa Parks, Sally Ride, Jane Addams, and Deborah Sampson, among those represented.

African-American Orators Richard Leeman, 1996-08-28 This long needed sourcebook assesses the unique styles and themes of notable African American orators from the mid 19th century to the present of 43 representative public speakers from W. E. B. Du Bois and Ida B. Wells Barnett, Martin Luther King Jr. and Jesse Jackson to Barbara Jordan and Thurgood Marshall. The critical analyses of the oratory of a broad segment of different types of public speakers demonstrate how they have stressed the historical search for freedom, upheld American ideals while condemning discriminatory practices against African Americans, and have spoken in behalf of black pride. This biographical dictionary with its evaluative essays, sources for further reading, and speech chronologies is designed for broad interdisciplinary use by students, teachers, activists, and general readers in college, university, institutional, and public libraries.
