Rwandas Gamble Gacaca And A New Model Of Transitional Justice:

Handbook of Restorative Justice , Security, Reconstruction, and Reconciliation Muna Ndulo, 2007-01-24 This key text brings together a team of leading contributors to address the complex issues of security reconciliation and reconstruction in post conflict societies Security Reconstruction and Reconciliation is organized into four main sections the social political and economic dimensions of conflict the impact of conflict on women and children reconstruction and past human rights violations disarmament demobilization reintegration post war reconstruction and the building of a capable state and the role of the international community in the peace process The chapters offer a detailed and succinct exposition of the challenges facing post conflict societies by articulating the vision of a new society With a foreword by Francis Deng the UN Secretary General s Special Representative on Internally Displaced Persons the authors discuss the issues in the context of possible solutions and lessons learnt in the field This new book is a valuable resource for researchers policy makers and students in the fields of conflict resolution security studies law and development The Challenge of Conflict Ustinia Dolgopol, Judith Gail Gardam, 2006 This collection is an integrated body of essays that provides a comprehensive range of viewpoints on how international legal and political mechanisms can address the catastrophic consequences of deadly conflict in today s world The authors are drawn from a diverse range of disciplines encompassing law peace studies international relations and criminal justice and include judges members of the military academics United Nations personnel and representatives of non government organisations Hot Spot: Sub-Saharan Africa Toyin Falola, Adebayo O. Oyebade, 2010-07-01 This book provides an extensive examination of the major conflicts in the extremely volatile region of sub Saharan Africa and their ramifications throughout the continent and beyond Conflict has been a critical factor in the making of contemporary Africa and its study is key to understanding the continent s tortuous history Hot Spot Sub Saharan Africa analyzes the area s major post independence conflicts intense enough to threaten national regional or international security This work defines conflict broadly to encompass political instability and state failure ethno religious tensions government and political corruption economic mismanagement and poverty cult violence and youth gangsterism Thematically organized chapters examine the origins and development of explosive hot spots including Sudan Somalia Rwanda and Democratic Republic of Congo in West Africa Nigeria Southern Africa the Horn of Africa and Central Africa and the Great Lakes region The book also explores outside factors that have impacted African conflicts such as superpower Cold War manipulation and foreign influence and intervention Comparativ , 2004 The Human Face of Justice David A. Backer, 2004 Disarming the Past Ana Cutter Patel, Pablo De Greiff, Lars Waldorf, 2009 For the past twenty years international donors have invested heavily in large scale disarmament demobilization and reintegration DDR programs while at the same time transitional justice measures have proliferated bringing truth justice and reparations to those recovering from state violence and civil war Yet DDR programs are seldom deconstructed to discover whether they truly achieve their justice related aims Additionally transitional justice mechanisms rarely articulate strategies for coordinating with DDR

Disarming the Past examines the connections and failures between these two initiatives within peacebuilding contexts and evaluates future links between DDR programs and the aims of transitional justice The outcome of a substantial research project initiated by the International Center for Transitional Justice ICTJ this book is crucial for anyone interested in effective interventions and enduring outcomes Michigan Journal of International Law ,2006 African Journal on Conflict Resolution ,2010 Journal of Dispute Resolution ,2004 Readings in General Studies: Peace studies and conflict resolution Bethel C. Uweru,John Oroshejede Ubrurhe,2000 Temple Law Review ,2006 Searching for Sense and Humanity Chris Maina Peter,Edith Kibalama,2006 The Uganda Living Law Journal ,2009 Attacking Africa's Poverty World Bank,2006 Drawing on the findings from twelve case studies this publication sets out examples of successful poverty reduction strategies in Africa in order to learn from these experiences and to highlight the reasons why they succeeded and ways in which they can be reproduced and enlarged The publication is organised into three sections an integrated overview of Uganda s experience over the last decade issues relating to improving the investment climate with examples from Rwanda Senegal Kenya Botswana Mauritius and Tanzania and strategies to tackle social exclusion and deliver services to poor people in Kenya Lesotho Malawi Uganda Ghana South Africa and Zambia □□□□□□ ,2004 Yale Journal of International Affairs ,2006 Atrocities and International Accountability Edel Hughes,William Schabas,Ramesh Chandra Thakur,2007 Rebuilding societies where conflict has occurred is rarely a simple process Where conflict has been accompanied by gross and systematic violations of human rights the procedure becomes very controversial The traditional debate on transitional justice sought to balance justice truth accountability peace and stability The appearance of impunity for past crimes undermines confidence in new democratic structures and casts doubt upon commitments to human rights Yet the need to consolidate peace sometimes resulted in reluctance on the part of authorities both local and international to confront suspected perpetrators of human rights violations especially when they are a part of a peace process Experience in many regions of the world therefore suggested a tradeoff between peace and justice But that is changing There is a growing consensus that some forms of justice and accountability are integral to rather than in tension with peace and stability This volume considers whether we are truly going beyond the transitional justice debate It brings together eminent scholars and practitioners with direct experience in some of the most challenging cases of international justice and illustrates that justice and accountability remain complex but not mutually exclusive ideals Rwanda and South Africa in Dialogue Charles Villa-Vicencio,Tyrone Savage,2001 Current Law Index ,2005
