Reconstructing American Literature Courses Syllabi Issues:

Canons and Contexts Paul Lauter, 1991-03-28 This collection of essays places issues central to literary study particularly the question of the canon in the context of institutional practices in American colleges and universities Lauter addresses such crucial concerns as what students should read and study how standards of quality are defined and changed the limits of theoretical discourse and the ways race gender and class shape not only teaching curricula and research priorities but collegiate personnel actions as well The book examines critically the variety of recent proposals for reforming higher education and it calls into question many practices like employing large numbers of part timers now popular with college managers Offering concrete examples of a comparative method for teaching literary texts and specific instances about integrating curricula Canons and Contexts proposes realistic ideas for creating varied spirited and democratic classrooms and colleges

Reconstructing American Literature Paul Lauter, 1983-01-01 Richard Wright Keneth Kinnamon, 2014-11-04 African American writer Richard Wright 1908 1960 was celebrated during the early 1940s for his searing autobiography Black Boy and fiction Native Son By 1947 he felt so unwelcome in his homeland that he exiled himself and his family in Paris But his writings changed American culture forever and today they are mainstays of literature and composition classes He and his works are also the subjects of numerous critical essays and commentaries by contemporary writers This volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of those essays books and articles from 1983 through 2003 Arranged alphabetically by author within years are some 8 320 entries ranging from unpublished dissertations to book length studies of African American literature and literary criticism Also included as an appendix are addenda to the author's earlier bibliography covering the years from 1934 through 1982 This is the exhaustive reference for serious students of Richard Wright and his critics Weibliche Bildungsromane Reinhild Fliethmann, 2002 The Canonical Debate Today Liviu Papadima, David Damrosch David Damrosch, Theo D'haen Theo D'haen, 2011-03-10 The Canonical Debate Today Crossing Disciplinary and Cultural Boundaries re enacts the canonical issues current in the 90s from a new perspective triggered by the changes that occurred worldwide in understanding the concepts and the status of theory in the legacy of literary studies within the field of humanities and in cultural production and reception During the last decade discussions of globalization mostly took into account its impact on the status of academic disciplines such as comparative literature or cultural studies or the reconfiguration of national literary fields These debates do not dispense with canonicity altogether but make it more urgent and necessary Canons seen as sets of norms or regulatory practices are central to the formation of disciplines to the recognition and transmission of values even to the articulation of discourses on identity on various levels The three sections of the volume deal with three interrelated subjects theories and applicable contexts of the canon Canons and Contexts recent transformations in the area of literary studies in response to the task of canon formation Reshaping Literary Studies and the challenges brought to the understanding of the canon s by the current process of re defining literary and cultural boundaries Transgressing Literary and Cultural Boundaries This volume will appeal to researchers teachers and students of cultural studies comparative literature and literary theory     A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse,1990-01-01 This ambitious undertaking is designed to acquaint students teachers and researchers with reference sources in any branch of English studies which Marcuse defines as all those subjects and lines of critical and scholarly inquiry presently pursued by members of university departments of English language and literature Within each of 24 major sections Marcuse lists and annotates bibliographies guides reviews of research encyclopedias dictionaries journals and reference histories The annotations and various indexes are models of clarity and usefulness and cross references are liberally supplied where appropriate Although cost conscious librarians will probably consider the several other excellent literary bibliographies in print such as James L Harner s Literary Research Guide Modern Language Assn of America 1989 larger academic libraries will want Marcuse s volume Jack Bales Mary Washington Coll Lib Fredericksburg Va Library Journal     Studies in Language and Literature ,1992     Race and the Agenda of American Literary Realism Kenneth W.
