H. Wong, 2018-10-25 This book is about the so called 4S challenge how does or can or should someone say something to someone about something This challenge is getting more intense day by day in our contemporary globalized world increasingly connected by science and technology through telecommunication and all sorts of social media where people are acutely aware of the diverse views on culture politics economics religion ethics education physical health and mental wellbeing which are very often in conflicts with each other This book arises from the reading of the dialogue between two internationally renowned and respected French scholars Jean Pierre Changeux and Paul Ricoeur What Makes Us Think A Neuroscientist and a Philosopher Argue about Ethics Human Nature and the Brain which explores where science and philosophy meet and whether there is a place for religion in the 21st century This book develops on the ideas Ricoeur raised in the dialogue about the need for digging deeper and a third discourse as a way forward to improve dialogues between competing worldviews and ideologies It attempts to formulate a third discourse as distinct from ordinary language as first discourse and various scientific or professional specialist languages as second discourse to address the burning issue of fragmentation of the person through overcoming the alienations between established discourses of philosophy science and theology without doing injustice to the unique and indispensable contributions of each of these discourses It argues that such a third discourse has to go beyond dualism and reductionism To achieve that this new way of talking about the lived experience of the person is going to take the form of a non reductive correlative multilayered discourse that has the capacity to as expressed in the language of the hermeneutics of Ricoeur explain more in order to understand better The Routledge Handbook of Pentecostal Theology Wolfgang Vondey, 2020-03-31 Research on Pentecostal and Charismatic Christianity has increased dramatically in recent decades and a diverse array of disciplines have begun to address a range of elements of these movements Yet there exists very little understanding of Pentecostal theology and it is not uncommon to encounter stereotypes and misperceptions Addressing this gap in current research The Routledge

Handbook of Pentecostal Theology is an exceptional reference source to the key topics challenges and debates in this growing field of study and is the first collection of its kind to offer a comprehensive presentation and critical discussion of this subject. Comprising over forty chapters written by a team of international contributors the Handbook is divided into five parts: Contextualizing Pentecostal Theology, Sources, Theological Method, Doctrines and Practices, Conversations and Challenges. These sections take the reader through a comprehensive introduction to what Pentecostals believe and how they practice their faith. Looking at issues such as the core teachings of Pentecostalism concerning Spirit baptism, divine healing or eschatology, unique practices such as spiritual warfare and worship and less discussed issues such as social justice and gender, each chapter builds towards a nuanced and global picture of the theology of the Pentecostal movement. The Routledge Handbook of Pentecostal Theology is essential reading for students and researchers in Pentecostal Studies, World Christianity and Theology as well as scholars working in contemporary Religious Studies.

The Theology of Amos Yong and the New Face of Pentecostal Scholarship Wolfgang Vondey, Martin Mittelstadt, 2013-06-15. In The Theology of Amos Yong and the New Face of Pentecostal Scholarship Wolfgang Vondey and Martin William Mittelstadt gather a table of experts on one of the most influential voices in current Pentecostal theology. The authors provide an introduction and critical assessment of Yong's biblical foundations, hermeneutics, epistemology, philosophical presuppositions, trinitarian theology, theology of religions, ecumenical and interfaith relations, theology of disability, engagement with contemporary culture and participation in the theology and science conversation. These diverse topics are pursued through the complementary perspectives that together shape Yong's methodology, pneumatology, pentecostalism and the possibility of renewal. The contributors invite a more thorough reading of Yong's work and propose a more substantial engagement with the new face of Pentecostal scholarship. Contributors include Andrew Carver, Jacob D. Dodson, Jeff Hittenberger, Mark Mann, Martin William Mittelstadt, L. William Oliverio Jr., David A. Reed, Tony Richie, Christopher A. Stephenson, Steven M. Studebaker, Paraskev, Eve Tibbs and Wolfgang Vondey.

The Holy Spirit as Space for the Living George C. Evans Jr., 2023-09-08 In The Holy Spirit as Space for the Living George Evans recognizes the significance of the Spirit in pneumatology within the New Testament emphasizing the Spirit's indwelling presence as a person. However, Evans notes that the functional aspect of the Spirit as the presence of God is often overlooked. The Spirit not only gives life ruah but also creates space for individuals to live and thrive. This spatial understanding suggests that the Spirit constructs a unique space for born again believers to inhabit, leading to self-awareness and a transformed lifeworld. Evans adopts a spatial hermeneutic drawing inspiration from Jesus's encounter with Nicodemus to explore different spatial productions and their connection to the experience of being reborn within the space of the Spirit. Through this approach, he develops a concept of Christian spatiality that expands our theological understanding and highlights space as a construct shaped by the Spirit. By considering the role of the Spirit in creating and shaping our lived experience, Evans unveils a deeper understanding of the transformative power of the Spirit and its impact on our spiritual journey.
