Practicing Reflexivity In Health And Welfare Making Knowledge:

Practising Reflexivity in Health and Welfare Carolyn Taylor, Susan White, 2000 It will be a valuable resource for practitioners in health and welfare as well as students in health and social science disciplines BOOK JACKET

Knowledge-in-practice in the Caring Professions Heather D'Cruz, Struan Jacobs, Adrian M. M. Schoo, 2009 Knowledge in Practice in the Caring Professions explores the nature and role of knowledge in the practical work of the caring professions It focuses on knowledge of the practical over the theoretical looking at the application of theory and the implementation of skill judgment and discretion Reflective Practice in Social Work Andy Mantell, Terry Scragg, 2018-12-03 This accessible and introductory text explores a range of reflective practice approaches and personal development to help students demonstrate reflective practice in their assignments It features extensive material on working collaboratively and using reflective practice on placements as well as practical activities and material on effective working with service users and care Practising Critical Reflection to Develop Emancipatory Change Christine Morley, 2016-04-08 Overwhelmingly critical practitioners working across a range of human service fields who are committed to emancipatory and progressive social change ideals report feeling powerless alienated from the means of change and hopeless about their capacities to make a difference in the lives of the individuals groups or communities with whom they work because of restrictive contexts that ultimately determine the nature and parameters of their work This ground breaking book addresses this dilemma by demonstrating how critical reflection as an educational tool enables practitioners to envision possibilities for change The legal system particularly in its response to sexual assault provides a perfect example of this type of context and this volume explores the work of sexual assault practitioners that are engaged in supporting victims survivors of sexual assault through the legal process By reshaping ideas that have previously been considered as predominantly theoretical and abstract Morley s work provides an innovative framework that enables social work and human services practitioners to find hope agency and practical strategies to work towards change despite operating in contexts that appear immutably oppressive

Medical Education for the Future Alan Bleakley, John Bligh, Julie Browne, 2011-02-21 The purpose of medical education is to benefit patients by improving the work of doctors Patient centeredness is a centuries old concept in medicine but there is still a long way to go before medical education can truly be said to be patient centered Ensuring the centrality of the patient is a particular challenge during medical education when students are still forming an identity as trainee doctors and conservative attitudes towards medicine and education are common amongst medical teachers making it hard to bring about improvements How can teachers policy makers researchers and doctors bring about lasting change that will restore the patient to the heart of medical education The authors experienced medical educators explore the role of the patient in medical education in terms of identity power and location Using innovative political philosophical cultural and literary critical frameworks that have previously never been applied so consistently to the field the authors provide a fundamental reconceptualisation of medical teaching and learning with an emphasis upon learning at the bedside and in the clinic They offer a wealth of practical and conceptual insights into the three way relationship between patients students and teachers setting out a radical and exciting approach to a medical education for the future The authors provide us with a masterful reconceptualization of medical education that challenges traditional notions about teaching and learning The book critiques current practices and offers new approaches to medical education based upon sociocultural research and theory This thought provoking narrative advances the case for reform and is a must read for anyone involved in medical education David M Irby PhD Vice Dean for Education University of California San Francisco School of Medicine and co author of Educating Physicians A Call for Reform of Medical School and Residency This book is a truly visionary contribution to the Flexner centenary It is compulsory reading for the medical educationalist with a serious concern for the future and for the welfare of patients and learners in the here and now Professor Tim Dornan University of Manchester Medical School and Maastricht University Graduate School of Health Professions Education

Evidence-based Practice in Social Work Andy Bilson, 2005 Social services are under pressure from Government and the public to demonstrate the effectiveness of what they do If the search for useable and relevant measures of effectiveness is to succeed practitioners managers and policymakers must have an understanding of the underlying social science concepts such as Evidence based practice EBP This concept is now promoted as a scientific approach to policy and practice However the concept was developed in the field of medicine and many would ask whether we can safely apply it to the messy process of social problem solving The promotion of evidence based practice also has implications for the content and focus of social work education and training and for the selection and recruitment of staff and students Evidence based Practice and Social Work provides a comprehensive overview of developments in this field and highlight many important debates and dilemmas Writers give clear pointers to the need for a new partnership between research policy and practice able to promote effective services They suggest a more inclusive version of EBP that is better able to respond to the uncertainties of social work practice in the real world Contents include An empirical study of the obstacles to evidence based practice Brian Sheldon Professor of Applied Social Research Director Rupatharshini Chilvers Annemarie Ellis Alice Moseley and Stephen Tierney CEBSS Peninsula Medical School Exeter The limits of positivism revisited David Smith Professor of Social Work Dept of Applied Social Science University of Lancaster A problematic relationship Evidence and practice in the workplace Nick Frost Senior Lecturer in Continuing Education University of Leeds Promoting evidence based practice in a child care charity The Barnardo s experience Tony Newman Principal Officer Research and Development and Di McNeish Head of Research Barnardo s Cardiff The Social Care Institute for Excellence The role of a national institute in developing knowledge and practice in social care Mike Fisher Professor and Director of Research and Reviews Social Care Institute for Excellence London Evidence based social work practice A reachable goal Frank Ainsworth Research Scholar and Lecturer Adjunct School of International Cultural and Community

Modern Social Work Theory Malcolm Payne,2005 This third edition is substantially revised and updated It offers extended coverage of many new areas of debate including evidence based practice social construction attachment theory and cultural diversity It also incor807porates a variety of innovative devices to support learning whether in the classroom the workplace or while undertaking independent study Students practitioners and lecturers alike will find this third edition a vital investment and an invaluable companion Book Jacket Working with Human Service Organisations Fiona Gardner,2006 Workers in human service organisations often find work with clients relatively manageable but struggle to work effectively with their employing agency particularly when translating professional values and a client centred approach to practice Working with Human Service Organisations provides students and human service workers with a range of tools to assist them to reflect and act critically and creatively within organisations In Part One the current context for workers and organisations is examined in relation to organisational theory and practice theory In Part Two a model for integrated practice is proposed to enable students to make connections between their professional training and the aims and structures of the organisation Humanistic Social Work Malcolm Payne,2011 In this exciting new book Malcolm Payne draws on core principles of social work to articulate a new humanistic practice for the twenty first century Humanistic Social Work Core Principles in Practice presents a profession that aims at positive fulfillment in social relationships exploring and reconciling artistic creative and spiritual avenues with evidence based practice approaches and postmodernist understandings of human growth and knowledge development Showing how practitioners can embody flexible skilled and knowledge based responses to the complexities of human individuality Payne reorients the aims of social work as an accountability to clients individual self fulfillment enabled by community and social development Humanistic Social Work is a reaffirming treatise on the strengths rather than the deficits of the individual the innovations rather than the imperfections of the social work profession
