Relief on the Hoof Eva Plach, 2025-11-15 Relief on the Hoof is about the thousands of horses and cattle that the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration UNRRA shipped as humanitarian aid in the immediate aftermath of WWII and about the seagoing cowboys who cared for the animals during their trans Atlantic journeys UNRRA contracted the Church of the Brethren to recruit almost 7 000 men to do this work and in exchange provided free passage on its ships to the cattle that were part of the Brethren s own humanitarian initiative the Heifer Project The Heifer Project emerged from a conviction that cows and their milk offered the best value as relief commodities As Eva Plach shows both UNRRA s animal aid program and the Heifer Project were responding to a crisis in postwar Europe Millions of livestock were lost during the war and contemporary experts warned that postwar recovery food security and the prevention of social and political unrest would be compromised without replenishing the lost herds Poland received more Heifer Project cattle than any other country and was the major recipient of UNRRA cattle and horses as well Relief on the Hoof shows that Poland s special status based on assessments of wartime destruction and postwar need reflected its unique geopolitical importance as Cold War tensions mounted Concise Encyclopedia of Amish, Brethren, Hutterites, and Mennonites Donald B. General Lewis B. Hershey and Conscientious Objection during World War II Nicholas A. Krehbiel, 2012-11-01 During World War II the United States drafted 10 1 million men to serve in the military Of that number 52 000 were conscientious objectors and 12 000 objected to noncombatant military service Those 12 000 men served the country in Civilian Public Service the program initiated by General Lewis Blaine Hershey the director of Selective Service from 1941 to 1970 Despite his success with this program much of Hershey s work on behalf of conscientious objectors has been overlooked due to his later role in the draft during the Vietnam War Seeking to correct these omissions in history Nicholas A Krehbiel provides the most comprehensive and well rounded examination to date of General Hershey s work as the developer and protector of alternative service programs for conscientious objectors Hershey whose Selective Service career spanned three major wars and six presidential administrations came from a background with a tolerance for pacifism He served in the National Guard and later served in both World War I and the interwar army A lifelong military professional he believed in the concept of the citizen soldier the civilian who responded to the duty of service when called upon Yet embedded in that idea was his intrinsic belief in the American right to religious freedom and his notion that religious minorities must be protected What to do with conscientious objectors has puzzled the United States throughout its history and prior to World War II there was no unified system for conscientious objectors The Selective Service Act of 1917 only allowed conscientious objection from specific peace sects and it had no provisions for public service In action this translated to poor treatment of conscientious objectors in military prisons and camps during World War I In response to demands by the Historic Peace Churches the Brethren Mennonites and the Society of Friends and other pacifist groups the government altered language in the Selective Service Act of 1940 stating that conscientious objectors should be assigned to noncombatant service in the military but if opposed to that would be assigned to work of national importance under civilian direction Under the direction of President Franklin D Roosevelt and with the cooperation of the Historic Peace Churches Hershey helped to develop Civilian Public Service in 1941 a program that placed conscientious objectors in soil conservation and forestry work camps with the option of moving into detached services as farm laborers scientific test subjects and caregivers janitors and cooks at mental hospitals Although the Civilian Public Service program only lasted until 1947 alternative service was required for all conscientious objectors until the end of the draft in 1973 Krehbiel delves into the issues of minority rights versus mandatory military service and presents General Hershey s pivotal role in the history of conscientious objection and conscription in American history Archival research from both Historic Peace Churches and the Selective Service makes General Lewis B Hershey and Conscientious Objection during World War II the definitive book on this subject Books in Print ,1991 The CPS Story Albert N. Keim,1990 The time was World War II The U S government had not devised a way to deal with the thousands who for reasons of conscience would refuse to fight Eager to avoid a repeat of the harsh treatment their young men had experienced during World War I the Historic Peace Churches Quakers Mennonites Amish and Brethren fashioned a program acceptable to their peace convictions and the highly militarized U S government It is an earthy story full of personal struggle government red tape humor and loss an unusual experiment in church state relations American Book Publishing Record ,1990 Messenger ,1997 We Have Just Begun to Not Fight Heather T. Frazer,John O'Sullivan,1996 Using the method of oral history this work presents a sample of the insights and reflections of the diverse group of Americans who entered the Civilian Public Service Who was who in America Marquis Who's Who,2007 Index to Book Reviews in Religion ,1993 Who's who in Religion ,1992
