Policy Research In Educational Settings Contested Terrain:

   Policy Research in Educational Settings Jennifer Ozga,2000 As outspoken in his day as Richard Dawkins or Christopher Hitchens are today American freethinker and author ROBERT GREEN INGERSOLL 1833 1899 was a notorious radical whose uncompromising views on religion and slavery they were bad in his opinion women s suffrage a good idea he believed and other contentious matters of his era made him a wildly popular orator and critic of 19th century American culture and public life As a speaker dedicated to expanding intellectual horizons and celebrating the value of skepticism Ingersoll spoke frequently on such topics as atheism freedom from the pressures of conformity and the lives of philosophers who espoused such concepts This collection of his most famous speeches includes the lectures The Gods 1872 Humboldt 1869 Thomas Paine 1870 Individuality 1873 Heretics and Heresies 1874   Policy Research in Educational Settings Jenny Ozga,1999-11-16 This book argues for independent critical research on education policy in the context of attacks on the quality and usefulness of educational research in general It takes issue with the argument promoted by government departments and agencies that education policy research should be limited to work that assists policy makers Against this position the book advocates independent critical research that scrutinizes policy in relation to its consequences for equality and social justice It argues that practitioners and academic researchers should form a research community that develops its own knowledge base from which so called evidence based policymaking in education may be assessed and challenged The book offers guidance on the theoretical and methodological resources available to practitioners and others with an interest in doing research on policy and discusses some of the main issues and problems in doing policy research on education It offers examples of research on policy at different system levels pursuing themes such as globalization changing governance of education selection choice and exclusion managerialism and the feminisation of educational management It argues for attention to the history of policy in education as a resource for understanding the present and concludes with recommendations for future research in areas where contestation of official agendas is needed   Handbook of Education Policy Research Lora Cohen-Vogel,Peter Youngs,Janelle Scott,2025-07-17 The second edition of the Handbook of Education Policy Research the largest volume published in AERA s history addresses a variety of policy and contextual issues in early childhood K 12 and postsecondary education that have received extensive empirical attention during the past 15 years With the pandemic and social turmoil as a backdrop the editors build on the breadth and depth of the first edition while expanding the scope of the project to include subjects methods theories and analyses that have contributed powerfully to the study of education policy and politics in the 2010s and 2020s The field has become more comprehensive and inclusive and the authors represent a diversity of racial ethnic and gender identities and intellectual and disciplinary orientations Most chapters come from multiple authors reflecting the multi sourced development of research in education policy since the first volume was published This compilation consists of 70 chapters and nine commentaries that map past present and future directions of the field and richly attend to critical issues of interest to students researchers policy makers and practitioners

Reconstructing Policy in Higher Education Elizabeth J. Allan,Susan Iverson,Rebecca Ropers-Huilman,2009-10-16 Written for Higher Education Masters and PhD programs this landmark textbook joins the theory of feminist post structuralism with research methods for the purpose of policy analysis in Higher Education It showcases the different methods that can be applied to a range of topics in Higher Education policy and policy development Reconstructing Policy in Higher Education highlights the work of accomplished and award winning scholars and provides an in depth examination of theoretical frameworks and concrete examples of how feminist post structuralism effectively informs research methods and can serve as a vital tool for policy makers and analysts Educational Research: Proofs, Arguments, and Other Reasonings Paul Smeyers,Marc Depaepe,2009-10-08 This book focuses on the language of educational research as well as on the language of education It conceives both as social practices and investigates how rhetoric plays a part in the complex process of historically situated argumentation The book aims to answer such questions as What is the nature of the arguments and the kinds of sources one relies on and What kind of reasoning is offered to convince practitioners Taking postmodern criticism seriously the contributors argue that the scholar or researcher cannot indulge in relativism or be satisfied with a description of particular cases Instead theoreticians as well as practitioners have to engage in sound thinking and dialogue The chapters in this volume highlight relevant characteristics of the language of educational research In addition attention is paid to the language of particular debates which figure prominently in the wider educational context such as the language of goals of parenting citizenship and capability Keywords in Education Policy Research Andrew Wilkins,Steven J. Courtney,Nelli Piattoeva,2024-01-10 The field of education policy research is a dense crowded space owing to its complicated relationship to different intellectual histories and the influence of various ontologies or turns To aid comprehension and clarity this book describes the history contribution and application of over 90 keywords in the field of education policy research It is designed as a reference learning and teaching tool to assist students educators and researchers with complex learning and teaching wider and background reading and knowledge building critical scholarship and research interdisciplinary thinking and writing and theory development and application Evidence-Based Education Policy David Bridges,Paul Smeyers,Richard Smith,2009-06-15 This book raises important questions about the extent to which policy can be derived from research and about the kind of evidence which should inform policy Challenges contemporary orthodoxies and offers constructive alternatives Critiques the narrower conceptions of evidence which might inform policy advanced by the what works movement Investigates the logical gaps between what can be shown by research and the wider political requirements of policy Examines the different educational research traditions e g large population studies individual case studies personal narratives action research philosophy and the romantic turn Calls for a more subtle understanding of the ways in which different forms of enquiry may inform policy and practice Discusses the recognition and utilisation of the insights offered by the rich variety of educational research traditions available to us Life History Research in Educational Settings Ivor Goodson,Patricia J. Sikes,2001 It has long been recognised that life history method has a great deal to offer to those engaged in social research Indeed right from the start of the twentieth century eminent sociologists such as W I Thomas C Wright Mills and Herbert Blumer have suggested that it is the best the perfect approach for studying any aspect of social life In recent years life history has become increasingly popular with researchers investigating educational topics of all kinds including teachers perceptions and experiences of different areas of their lives and careers curriculum and subject development pedagogical practice and managerial concerns Life History Research in Educational Settings sets out to explore and consider the various reasons for this popularity and makes the case that the approach has a major and unique contribution to make to understandings of schools schooling and educational experience however characterised The book draws extensively on examples of life history research in order to illustrate theoretical methodological ethical and practical issues Alberta Journal of Educational Research ,2004 Policy-making and Policy Learning in 14-19 Education David Raffe,Ken Spours,2007 In recent years 14 19 education has been the subject of numerous reviews innovations and policy changes What can be learnt from this experience and do current policies incorporate this learning In this book leading experts on 14 19 education and training explore the concept of policy learning and examine recent policies and policy making in England and Scotland They focus on three main types of policy learning learning from the experience of earlier policies learning from local innovations and learning from comparisons with other countries including home international comparisons within the uk They suggest that in order to meet current challenges in 14 19 education it is not only the policies that need to change but also the way in which policies are made The book concludes by arguing that only a participative approach to policy making bringing together policy makers practitioners and researchers can form the basis of a comprehensive strategy for improved policy learning This book will be of interest to all those involved in or affected by policy making in the increasingly high profile and politically charged field of 14 19 education This book contains a list of contributors a preface a list of acknowledgements and the following essays 1 Three Models of Policy Learning and Policy making in 14 19 Education David Raffe and Ken Spours 2 Policy Memory and Policy Amnesia in 14 19 Education Learning From the Past Jeremy Higham and David Yeomans 3 Learning From Local Experience How Effective is the Government s 14 19 Learning Model Ken Spours Ann Hodgson and David Yeomans 4 Turbulence Masquerading as Change Exploring 14 19 Policy Jacky Lumby and Nick Foskett 5 Policy Continuity and Policy Learning in the Action Plan Higher Still and Beyond John Hart and Ron Tuck 6 Learning from Home International Comparison 14 19 Policy Across the United Kingdom David Raffe 7 a Framework for Understanding and Comparing 14 19 Education Policies in the United Kingdom Cathleen Stasz and Susannah Wright 8 Creating Political Space for Policy Learning in 14 19 Education and Training in England Ann Hodgson and Ken Spours and 9 Policy Learning in 14 19 Education From Accusation to an Agenda for Improvement David Raffe and Ken

Spours An index is also included   Research and Educational Leadership Fenwick W. English,Gail C. Furman,2006-10-27 Research and Educational Leadership is the first book to directly address the implications of the National Research Council s NRC s Scientific Research in Education 2002 in the fields of educational leadership and school administration This text points out the strengths and weaknesses of the NRC s recommendations and specifically identifies areas that are not likely to lead to either theoretical or practical advances in practice or new knowledge if the NRC s guidelines become dominant in determining the value of research Research and Educational Leadership is an invaluable tool in rethinking how research is conducted in educational leadership and how public and private funding agencies should view research proposals for improving leadership practices in schools It is also a key resource for teaching researchers to think more deeply about school leadership as they engage in dissertation research Practitioners will also find the work an important reference in understanding what kinds of research are likely to promote improved comprehension of leadership practices and social justice   New Zealand Journal of Educational Studies ,2000   Inside Corporate U Marilee Reimer,2004 The effects of corporatization on higher education have been well documented yet there is little analysis of how the ongoing commercialization is affecting women faculty and shaping gender relations within the academic community Inside Corporate U is a timely and original collection that speaks to the gender related shifts and changes resulting from this business as usual approach Critical and eye opening fourteen essays examine how corporate ideology is influencing academic freedom intellectual property rights and independent research employment equity workloads and teaching conditions professional growth and development and how it is challenging the future of feminist pedagogy and Women s Studies The bottom line for these contributors is developing a strategy that preserves and protects the rights that women in the academy have struggled to achieve and that ensures equal access to higher education for all students   Departmental Leadership in Higher Education Peter Knight,Paul Trowler,2001 The book offers a way of looking at the practice of leading rather than presenting a selection of tips or tools for leadership but is studded with views from departmental leaders and extensive practical advice Jacket   Education and Social Change Amanda Coffey,2001 This text undertakes a systematic sociological analysis of contemporary educational policy and practice In doing so it charts the substantial and significant changes that education systems have undergone over recent decades and places them within a broader context of social change Thematically structured the book brings together a diverse body of material from the sociology of education to provide a coherent and logical text It takes a comprehensive approach summarizing transformations that have occurred in educational policy and addressing the consequences for institutions as well as for teachers parents and learners The author explores the complex and changing relationships between the state and the processes and practices of education She also stresses the importance of educational experiences for the re production of collective and individual biographies The result is an invaluable text for sociology and social policy students as well as for education professionals engaged in training or further study   Changing

Faces of Adult Literacy, Language and Numeracy Mary Hamilton,Yvonne Hillier,2006 Shows how creativity can be an approach to and an ethos for several aspects of school life and management This book examines organisation leadership approaches to teaching and learning curriculum design assessment for learning and more It is useful for those working in partnership with schools and also for those involved in school change   Education Management in Managerialist Times Martin Thrupp,Robert Willmott,2003 For academics and students Education Management in Managerialist Times offers a critical guide to existing educational management texts and makes a strong case for redefining educational management along more socially and politically informed lines   Improving Transition Planning for Young People with Special Educational Needs Lesley Dee,2006 The focus of the book is on transition planning for young people with learning difficulties and or disabilities a crucial but often overlooked element of social inclusion While there is now considerable official guidance on how to manage the transition process for young people with learning difficulties and or disabilities little is know about what really happens in practice   Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001   Gender, Education Reform, and Teachers' Labor in Argentina Sarah Ann Robert,2008
