Social Media in the Fashion Industry Patricia SanMiguel, Tekila Harley Nobile, Cristina Sánchez-Blanco, Nadzeya Sabatini, 2024-10-07 This book introduces social network fundamentals in the fashion domain. It addresses the creation of social media marketing plans highlighting strategic approaches that allow fashion brands to differentiate themselves in the ephemeral and challenging fashion context. Through a variety of academic and professional sources and by sharing the results of their own research, the authors present research methodologies including netnography, visual sentiment and argumentation analysis for developing rigorous studies to gain social media insights that can be useful for decision making and value creation. The book also discusses future trends regarding social media management in the fashion domain via interviews with senior fashion experts. This cutting edge book that combines theory and practice will appeal to undergraduate and master students across a broad range of fields including fashion studies, marketing, digital marketing and communication and to young professionals who are starting to work in social media. In addition, this book is also developed for young researchers and PhD students employing social media analysis in their studies.

You Crushed It Jean-Philippe Baril Guérard, 2025-04-01 With the caustic daring of Bret Easton Ellis and the offbeat psychological insight of Douglas Coupland, You Crushed It is a captivating exploration of love and the corroding nature of power in creative industries. Raph Massi is crushing it. A young up and coming comedian, he's successfully navigating the internal cosmos of the stand up industry and burying long borne insecurities with each successful gig. He does so with the support of his girlfriend Laurie who narrates the book sharing their sensual mundane moments of new love and the creative collaborations that follow. But when Laurie dumps him, Raph's heartbreak metastasizes into paranoia, cruelty and a path that is as lonely as it is destructive. Baril Guérard shares an exacting portrayal of the innermost thoughts we hide from the world and from ourselves. The result is a devastating critique of the soft underbelly of toxic masculinity and the complicated ferocity of those who protect it. You Crushed It is an eminently readable, witty reflection on artistic prowess, community and the intoxication of success.

The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash, 2019-10-23 This all inclusive A-Z encyclopedia by one of the world's foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on. The work offers more than 5 000 three to five star entries: three stars good, four stars excellent, five stars masterpiece and yes, author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut. In addition to a precis, each film's entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist. Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children. Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying, Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing: recommended, acceptable, cautionary and unacceptable. Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre i.e. animated, drama, sports, mystery, adventure etc as well as an annotated name index listing all persons.
