Ruth Benedict, Patterns of a Life Judith Schachter, 1983 Traces the life of the great American anthropologist discusses her friendship with Margaret Mead and examines Benedict's most important writings Ruth Benedict Judith Modell, 1983

Ruth Benedict Judith Modell, 1984 Freuds Betrug E. Fuller Torrey, 2015-05-26 E Fuller Torrey beschreibt die Entwicklung Ausbreitung und den Einfluss der freudschen Theorie die besonders in Amerika aber eigentlich in allen westlichen Gesellschaften mit dem Beginn des 20. Jahrhunderts beispiellos Karriere machte Trotz einiger richtiger Erkenntnisse die aber nicht unbedingt von Freud selbst stammen kann jedoch vielen von Freuds zentralen Behauptungen aus wissenschaftlicher und spiritueller Sicht nicht zugestimmt werden Somit stellen viele der darauf basierenden Formen von Psychotherapie eigentlich einen Betrug dar eine freudsche Fehlleistungen im w. rtlichen Sinne Erg. nzend zu den Ausf. hrungen in Torreys 1992 erschienenem Original Freudian Fraud zeigt das Vorwort zur deutschen Ausgabe dass ein dem Wesen des Menschen zu Grunde liegendes subtiles spirituelles System aus berlieferten Texten der indischen Kultur schon lange bekannt ist Mit Ausnahme der sp. ten Werke C. G. Jungs werden die damit verbundenen Erkenntnisse in der westlichen Psychologie und Psychiatrie jedoch nicht in Betracht gezogen Mit Hilfe einer aktualisierten und bereinigten Form dieses spirituell psychologischen Wissens ist es heute f. r jeden Einzelnen nicht nur m. glich zu erkennen wie sch. dlich Freuds Ideen f. r unsere Gesellschaften waren und auch heute noch sind Man erh. lt auch das Handwerkszeug um die aus seinen Theorien resultierenden Stolpersteine zu umgehen Color in the Classroom Zoe Burkholder, 2011-10-05 Between the turn of the twentieth century and the Brown v. Board of Education decision in 1954 the way that American schools taught about race changed dramatically This transformation was engineered by the nation's most prominent anthropologists including Franz Boas Ruth Benedict and Margaret Mead during World War II Inspired by scientific racism in Nazi Germany these activist scholars decided that the best way to fight racial prejudice was to teach what they saw as the truth about race in the institution that had the power to do the most good American schools Anthropologists created lesson plans lectures courses and pamphlets designed to revise what they called the race concept in American education They believed that if teachers presented race in scientific and egalitarian terms conveying human diversity as learned habits of culture rather than innate characteristics American citizens would become less racist Although nearly forgotten today this educational reform movement represents an important component of early civil rights activism that emerged alongside the domestic and global tensions of wartime Drawing on hundreds of first hand accounts written by teachers nationwide Zo Burkholder traces the influence of this anthropological activism on the way that teachers understood spoke and taught about race She explains how and why teachers readily understood certain theoretical concepts such as the division of race into three main categories while they struggled to make sense of more complex models of cultural diversity and structural inequality As they translated theories into practice teachers crafted an educational discourse on race that differed significantly from the definition of race produced by scientists at mid century Schoolteachers and their approach to race were put into the spotlight with the Brown v Board of Education case but the belief that racially integrated schools would eradicate racism in the next generation and eliminate the need for discussion of racial inequality long predated this Discussions of race in the classroom were silenced during the early Cold War until a new generation of antiracist multicultural educators emerged in the 1970s
