Performing Arts Research A Guide To Information Sources:

Performing Arts Research Marion K. Whalon, 1976-01-01 A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This ambitious undertaking is designed to acquaint students teachers and researchers with reference sources in any branch of English studies which Marcuse defines as all those subjects and lines of critical and scholarly inquiry presently pursued by members of university departments of English language and literature Within each of 24 major sections Marcuse lists and annotates bibliographies guides reviews of research encyclopedias dictionaries journals and reference histories The annotations and various indexes are models of clarity and usefulness and cross references are liberally supplied where appropriate Although cost conscious librarians will probably consider the several other excellent literary bibliographies in print such as James L Harner s Literary Research Guide Modern Language Assn of America 1989 larger academic libraries will want Marcuse s volume Jack Bales Mary Washington Coll Lib Fredericksburg Va Library Journal Victorian Studies Sharon W. Propas, 2016-06-17 First published in 2006 this work is a valuable guide for the researcher in Victorian Studies Updated to include electronic resources this book provides guides to catalogs archives museums collections and databases containing material on the Victorian period It organises the vast array of reference sources by discipline to help researchers tailor their investigations Research Guides to the Humanities, Social Sciences, Sciences, and Technology Martin Howard Sable, 1986 A Research Guide to the Ancient World John M. Weeks, Jason de Medeiros, 2014-11-25 The archaeological study of the ancient world has become increasingly popular in recent years A Research Guide to the Ancient World Print and Electronic Sources is a partially annotated bibliography The study of the ancient world is usually although not exclusively considered a branch of the humanities including archaeology art history languages literature philosophy and related cultural disciplines which consider the ancient cultures of the Mediterranean world and adjacent Egypt and southwestern Asia Chronologically the ancient world would extend from the beginning of the Bronze Age of ancient Greece ca 1000 BCE to the fall of the Western Roman Empire ca 500 CE This book will close the traditional subject gap between the humanities Classical World Egyptology and the social sciences anthropological archaeology Near East in the study of the ancient world This book is uniquely the only bibliographic resource available for such holistic coverage The volume consists of 17 chapters and seven appendixes arranged according to the traditional types of library research materials bibliographies dictionaries atlases etc The appendixes are mostly subject specific including graduate programs in ancient studies reports from significant archaeological sites numismatics and paleography and writing systems These extensive author and subject indexes help facilitate ease of use Research within the Disciplines Peggy Keeran, Michael Levine-Clark, 2014-04-28 Research within the Disciplines is designed to help reference librarians and students studying to become librarians gain that deeper understanding of disciplinary differences that allows them to comfortably solve information needs rather than merely responding to questions and practical knowledge about how to work with researchers in a library setting The book has three chapters that cover the disciplines at the broadest level humanities social sciences and sciences plus supplemental chapters that focus on associated disciplines research in history business and engineering research using government sources and across disciplines interdisciplinary and critical information literacy For the second edition of Research within the Disciplines several chapters have been added that together give a broader and deeper overview of research across all subject areas research practices of creative and performing artists and of clinical scientists research in international documents research strategies for foreign language materials and visual literacy across the disciplines Major shifts in technology have been accounted for that have changed how we do research and have expanded the range of resources available to researchers in all disciplines All of the chapters have been rewritten or heavily revised this is much more a new book than a new edition Broadside, 1973 Journal of the University Film Association
