Persecution And Martyrdom In The Theology Of Paul:

Persecution and Martyrdom in the Theology of Paul John S. Pobee, 1985 PERSECUTION & MARTYRDOM POBEE

JOHN S., 1984 'The Sufferings of Christ Are Abundant In Us' Kar Yong Lim, 2009-08-11 Investigates the centrality of suffering to Paul's argument in 2 Corinthians Maccabean Martyr Traditions in Paul's Theology of Atonement Jarvis J. Williams, 2010-01-01 In an age in which scholars continue to produce books on the nature and significance of Jesus's death books that often assume the Old Testament cult was the New Testament authors primary background for their conception of Jesus's death Jarvis J Williams offers a fresh and novel contribution regarding both the nature of and background influences behind Paul's conception of Jesus's death He argues that Paul's conception of Jesus's death both as an atoning sacrifice and as a saving event for Jews and Gentiles was significantly influenced by Maccabean Martyr Theology To argue his thesis Williams engages in an intense exegesis of 2 and 4 Maccabees while also interacting with other Second Temple Jewish texts that are relevant to his thesis Williams further interacts with relevant Old Testament texts and the key texts in the Pauline corpus He argues that the authors of 2 and 4 Maccabees present the deaths of the Jewish martyrs during the reign of Antiochus Epiphanes IV as atoning sacrifices and as a saving event for Israel He further argues that although the Old Testament's cultic language certainly influenced Paul's understanding of Jesus's death at certain junctures in his letters the Old Testament cult alone which emphasized animal sacrifices cannot fully explain why or even how Paul could conceive of Jesus's death a human sacrifice as both an atoning sacrifice and a saving event for Jews and Gentiles Finally Williams highlights the lexical theological and conceptual parallels between Martyr Theology and Paul's conception of Jesus's death Even if scholars disagree with Williams's thesis or methodology serious Pauline scholars interested in the background influences behind and the nature and significance of Jesus's death in Paul's theology will want to interact with this work

A New Vision, a New Heart, a Renewed Call David Claydon, 2005 Paul's Seven Explanations of the Suffering of the Righteous Barry D. Smith, 2002 Smith religious studies and philosophy Atlantic Baptist University identifies seven explanations of the suffering of the righteous presented in Paul's letters He elucidates these explanations by placing them in context against a Jewish religious historical background The role of persecution the depiction of suffering as remedial the pedagogical role of suffering and the relationship between human suffering and Christ's suffering are specifically discussed Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Bibliographie internationale des recensions de la littérature savante, 1974 Christ Died for Our Sins Jarvis J. Williams, 2015-05-18 In Christ Died for Our Sins Jarvis J Williams argues a twofold thesis First that Paul in Romans presents Jesus death as both a representation of and a substitute for Jews and Gentiles Second that the Jewish martyrological narratives in certain Second Temple Jewish texts are a background behind Paul's presentation of Jesus death By means of careful textual analysis Williams argues that the Jewish martyrological narratives appropriated and applied Levitical cultic language and Isaianic language to the deaths of the Torah observant Jewish martyrs in order to present their deaths as a representation a substitution and as Israel s Yom Kippur for non Torah observant Jews Williams seeks to show that Paul appropriated and applied this same language and conceptuality in order to present Jesus death as the death of a Torah observant Jew serving as a representation a substitution and as the Yom Kippur for both Jews and Gentiles Scholars working in the areas of Romans Pauline theology Second Temple Judaism atonement in Paul or early Christian origins will find much to stimulate and provoke in these pages

God and Creation in Intercultural Perspective Peter Fulljames,1993 African Christian theologies aim to contextualise the gospel in African cultures yet they also have much to offer to the development of systematic theology elsewhere In this book the responses of Barth and of Pannenberg to the question of how God is related to the world are analysed and then re formulated This is done through interaction with the themes of community life and co creativity which emerge in interpretation of Dickson Pobe and Nyamiti The discussion makes use of Tanner s rules for Christian language about God and creation and the methods of the African theologies are distinguished in a new classification of models of contextualisation which is compared with the work of Schreier and with Frei s typology of modern theology The concluding development of Pannenberg s theology is shown to be relevant to topics much debated in the late twentieth century the environmental crisis the relationship of science and religious belief the nature of human freedom and the problem of evil

Missions in Contexts of Violence Keith Eugene Eitel,2008 This volume deals with the contexts of violence In an age of increasing concern for this type of missionary work the missions community needs to hear from those that have reflected on the multifaceted elements involved in understanding the phenomenon of martyrdom persecution violence as it relates to telling the age old Gospel story The place to begin is with Biblical and theological analysis followed by the grounding provided by constructing consequent lifestyles strategies and practices in physically risky settings Finally insights from the live settings of violence are warranted

Blessed Victors Ruth Sutcliffe,2024-07-25 The late second through third centuries saw the remarkable confluence of the early church s developing identity theological understanding and praxis with a period of opposition and intermittent persecution from the world around it Theology necessarily engaged with the persecution experience as the church considered the goodness and providence of God the Name to be confessed and the purposeful outcome of the antagonism they faced Ruth Sutcliffe argues that the early fathers theological understanding of the role of persecution in the Christian life informed their exhortations to individual and communal response contributing to the church s remarkable survival and growth through this period Four great thinkers of this era Clement and Origen of Alexandria and Tertullian and Cyprian of Carthage each have much to contribute to a theological understanding of Christian persecution and Sutcliffe explores their widely different perspectives intellectual milieu and experiences She explains these differences and similarities in terms of their use of the Scriptures in conversation with their own contexts and agendas concluding that their differences in approach to persecution can be explained theologically and that these differences offer a unique window into their respective thought Despite such differences Sutcliffe stresses that the early church did have a fundamentally coherent theology of persecution which speaks to the worldwide church today Concordia Theological Monthly, 1942 Includes section Book review Literatur The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Christian Martyrdom Paul Middleton, 2020-04-06 A unique wide ranging volume exploring the historical religious cultural political and social aspects of Christian martyrdom Although a well studied and researched topic in early Christianity martyrdom had become a relatively neglected subject of scholarship by the latter half of the 20th century However in the years following the attack on the Twin Towers on September 11 2001 the study of martyrdom has experienced a remarkable resurgence Heightened cultural religious and political debates about Islamic martyrdom have in a large part prompted increased interest in the role of martyrdom in the Christian tradition The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Christian Martyrdom is a comprehensive examination of the phenomenon from its beginnings to its role in the present day This timely volume presents essays written by 30 prominent scholars that explore the fundamental concepts key questions and contemporary debates surrounding martyrdom in Christianity Broad in scope this volume explores topics ranging from the origins influences and theology of martyrdom in the early church with particular emphasis placed on the Martyr Acts to contemporary issues of gender identity construction and the place of martyrdom in the modern church Essays address the role of martyrdom after the establishment of Christendom especially its crucial contribution during and after the Reformation period in the development of Christian and European national building as well as its role in forming Christian identities in Asia Africa and the Americas This important contribution to Christian scholarship Offers the first comprehensive reference work to examine the topic of martyrdom throughout Christian history Includes an exploration of martyrdom and its links to traditions in Judaism and Islam Covers extensive geographical zones time periods and perspectives Provides topical commentary on Islamic martyrdom and its parallels to the Christian church Discusses hotly debated topics such as the extent of the Roman persecution of early Christians The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Christian Martyrdom is an invaluable resource for scholars and students of religious studies theology and Christian history as well as readers with interest in the topic of Christian martyrdom Radical Martyrdom and Cosmic Conflict in Early Christianity Paul Middleton, 2006-08-30 Several view of martyrdom co existed in the early Church The orthodox position generally accepted by scholars was that a Christian should choose martyrdom rather than deny the Faith but should not on any account court death Although it has been recognised that some in the early Church did seek a glorified death by giving themselves over to arrest most scholars have dismissed such acts as differing from the accepted attitude to martyrdom in the early Church Therefore instances of volitional or radical martyrdom have been largely overlooked or sidelined in scholarly investigations into the theology and origins of Christian martyrdom Paul Middleton argues that far from being a deviant strand of early Christianity radical martyrdom was a significant and widely held idealised form of devotion in the late first to early third centuries Christian martyrdom is placed within the heritage of Jewish War tradition with each martyr making an important contribution to the cosmic conflict between Satan and God Radical Martyrdom re examines the presentation theology and origins of Christian martyrdom up to the beginning of the Decian persecutions in the light of new perspectives on the subject
