Copyright Office, 1974      Encyclopedia of Lesbian and Gay Histories and Cultures George Haggerty, Bonnie Zimmerman, 2000 Beginning in 1869 when the study of homosexuality can be said to have begun with the establishment of sexology this Encyclopedia offers accounts of the most important international developments in an area that now occupies a critical place in many fields of academic endeavours While gays and lesbians have shared many aspects of life their histories and cultures developed in profoundly different ways To reflect this crucial fact the Encyclopedia has been prepared in two separate volumes assuring that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered Written by some of the most famous names in the field as well as new researchers this is intended as a reference for students and scholars in all areas of study as well as the general public      America's War on Sex Marty Klein Ph.D., 2012-04-13 This book exposes how a coalition of political religious and civic leaders are using the issue of sex to frighten misinform and bully Americans paving the way for dramatic new public policies that are already restricting everyone's rights Americans are more vulnerable today than ever to anxiety about sexual danger to believing that their sexuality is not normal or moral and to laws and public policies that restrict their rights criminalize their consenting behavior and confuse and miseducate their children In the second edition of America s War on Sex The Continuing Attack on Law Lust and Liberty psychologist sex therapist and courtroom expert witness Marty Klein sets the record straight and uncovers how the Sexual Disaster Industry works a powerful social and political propaganda machine that is supported by the very citizens it victimizes This book analyzes eight battlegrounds in which America s War on Sex is being fought and examines how each one is the focus of an unrelenting struggle to regulate sexuality in direct contradiction to our Constitutional guarantees scientific fact and the needs of average Americans Klein places these various attacks on our rights in historical context explains how the money and political power are coordinated from the same sources and shows how the Religious Right inflames Americans anxiety about sexuality even as it proposes repressive schemes to reduce that anxiety This book tackles a sensitive and volatile topic head on addressing how the political social historical religious and emotional issues surrounding public policy interfaces with sexuality as no other work has before      The Sexually Oppressed Harvey L. Criminology Gennaro F. Vito, Ronald M. Holmes, 1994 Focusing on pure criminology not criminal justice systems topics this book takes a broad approach to criminological theory incorporating sociology psychology biology and ecology The text blends the theoretical and applied aspects of criminology incorporating timely topics such as gang violence substance abuse serial murder and satanic cults Writing from a social sciences perspective the authors explore why and how crime occurs and how this knowledge can guide policy development The authors show the interplay of theory research and public policy throughout the text      Constructions of Deviance Patricia A. Adler, 2003 This text is the industry standard for publishing the most recent and relevant articles in the field It demonstrates to students how the concepts and theories of deviance can be applied to the world around them The authors include both theoretical analyses and ethnographic illustrations of how deviance is socially constructed organized and managed The Adlers challenge the reader to see the diversity and pervasiveness of deviance in society by covering a wide variety of deviant acts represented throughout the text Most importantly the Adlers present deviance as a component of society and examine the construction of deviance in terms of differential social power whereby some members of society have the power to define other whole groups as deviant The book takes an interactionist or constructionist perspective on deviance looking at the processes in society that create deviance The authors have selected studies that are ethnographic in character focusing on the experiences of deviants the deviant making process and the ways in which people who are labeled as deviant in society react to that label      Gender and Sex in Society Lucile Duberman, 1975      Bestandsverzeichnis Kriminologie Universität Tübingen.
