Shackleton At War And Peace:

Shackleton at War and Peace John Chartres, 1989 Beretter om udviklingen og anvendelsen af det britiske fly Avro Shackleton der har været anvendt til maritime patrol search and rescue samt airborne early warning A War of Individuals Jonathan Atkin, 2002 This book draws together for the very first time examples of the aesthetic pacifism practised during the Great War by such celebrated individuals as Virginia Woolf Siegfried Sassoon and Bertrand Russell In addition the book outlines the stories of those less well known who shared the mind set of the Bloomsbury Group when it came to facing the first total war The research for this study took five years gathering evidence from all the major archives in Great Britain and abroad This is the first time that such wide ranging evidence has been placed together in order to paint a complete picture

Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature Anna Lorraine Guthrie, Bertha Tannehill, Neltje Marie Tannehill Shimer, 1922 An author subject index to selected general interest periodicals of reference value in libraries Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, 1919 Procurement and Politics Andrea Migone, Alexander Howlett, Michael Howlett, 2023-06-21 This open access book compares the experiences of large scale military procurement in Canada and Australia Focusing on the recent frigate and jet fighter programmes it demonstrates how delays suffered in delivering weapons systems and platforms in these countries have been caused by misalignments between the strategic requirements set out by the armed forces and government defence policies By bringing the insights of public management and administration to those of defence studies the book presents policy options that will help improve the nature of future large project military procurement It will appeal to scholars and students of public administration public management and defence studies as well as practitioners and policymakers Geographers Elizabeth Baigent, André Reyes Novaes, 2025-01-23 Geographers Biobibliographical Studies sheds new light on the history of geography through the biographies of distinguished practitioners from New Zealand Britain Ireland and Hungary Volume 41 focuses on inclusivity highlighting the contribution of geography to numerous fields and examining the role of portraiture in the history of geography for the first time With a particular emphasis on the role of portraiture this volume is richly illustrated and explores how imagers can contribute to visual methods used in geographical studies The volume explores the lives of 6 prominent geographers including Dame Evelyn Stokes a New Zealand geographer who did pioneering work with Maori communities and Ferenc Fodor a Hungarian geographer who lived through both World Wars Combined their lives cover 200 years of history and touch on numerous fields from historical geography to popular geography The Strategy of the Lloyd George Coalition, 1916-1918 David French, 1995-06-29 The popular image of the First World War is dominated by two misconceptions The first holds that the war was an exercise in futility in which incompetent upper class generals callously sacrificed an entire generation of young men to no good purpose The second holds that the debate about British strategic policy during the First World War was a gladiatorial contest between brass hats generals and frock coats politicians Historians denied access for too long to the contemporary records of the private deliberations of policy makers had been forced to follow both interpretations David French challenges this orthodoxy and suggests that the policy makers were united in trying to relate strategic policy to a carefully considered set of war aims His challenging conclusion is that the policy makers never lost sight of their goal which was to ensure that Britain fought the war at an acceptable cost and emerged from it with its security enhanced against both its enemies and its allies
