Parliamentary Debates New Zealand. Parliament, 1981 Intermediate Accounting IFRS, International Adaptation DONALD E.. WEYGANDT KIESO (JERRY J.. WARFIELD, TERRY D.), Jerry J. Weygandt, Terry D. Warfield, 2024-10-06 The Electrician , 1913 Human Rights Praxis and the Struggle for Survival William T. Armaline, Davita Silfen Glasberg, 2024-09-30 Asserting a critical sociological perspective Human Rights Praxis and the Struggle for Survival reveals the contested historical processes through which fundamental human needs are constructed as rights under international law and how those rights are confronted by the ruling relations and crises inherent to contemporary global capitalism and the waning American hegemonic world order Put simply the book explores why human rights as a formal legal project has failed to deliver on guaranteeing human survival let alone universal human dignity Rather than stopping at critique the

authors propose a specific materialist intellectual and political agenda for the preservation of collective human survival that can achieve the historically unique notions of common humanity and human emancipation. The authors build on previous work further developing the sociology of human rights as a distinct field at the intersection of Social Sciences and International Law. They take on several provocative theoretical debates such as those over connections between racism and capitalism, the existence of a global or transnational police state, the control, growth and exploitation of migrants, migration and the complex relationship between political repression and various forms of domination. Human Rights Praxis and the Struggle for Survival offers critical analysis of contemporary politics and options for students, scholars, organizers and stakeholders to grapple with some of the most pressing social problems of human history.
