    What We Were Doing and where We Were Going Damion Searls,2009 Seventeen years after the publication of the first volume of Jacques Roubaud s epic and moving The Great Fire of London Dalkey Archive Press is proud to publish the first English translation of The Loop the second novel in Roubaud s Proustian series which has in its capacity to astonish been compared to the compositions of Messiaen and the buildings of Antonio Gaudi Devastated after the death of his young wife Alix the author conceives of a project that will allow him not only to continue writing but continue living writing a book that leads him to confront his terrible loss as well as examine the lonely world in which he now seems more and more to exist that of Memory The Loop finds Roubaud returning to his earliest recollections as well as considering the nature of memory itself and the process both merciful and terrible of forgetting Neither memoir nor novel by turns playful and despairing The Loop is a masterpiece of contemporary prose   The Work of Teaching Writing Joseph Harris,2020-03-16 Film and literature can illuminate the experience of teaching and learning writing in ways that academic books and articles often miss In particular popular books and movies about teaching reveal the crucial importance of taking students seriously as writers and intellectuals In this book Joseph Harris explores how the work of teaching writing has been depicted in novels films and plays to reveal what teachers can learn from studying not just theories of discourse rhetoric and pedagogy but also accounts of the lived experience of teaching writing Each chapter examines a fictional representation of writing classes as portrayed in Dead Poets Society Up the Down Staircase Educating Rita Push and more and shifts the conversation from how these works portray teachers to how they dramatize the actual work of teaching Harris considers scenes of instruction from different stages of the writing process and depictions of students and teachers at work together to highlight the everyday aspects of teaching writing In the writing classroom the ideas of teachers come to life in the work of their students The Work of Teaching Writing shows what fiction film and drama can convey about the moment of exchange between teacher and student as they work together to create new insights into writing It will interest both high school and undergraduate English teachers as well as graduate students and scholars in composition and rhetoric literary studies and film studies   Talking Out of School Kass Fleisher,2008 Humour abounds in this memoir which reads like an expose of the power structures in America s higher education system Whose got it how they re abusing it what everyone else is willing to do to get it and the social cost of doing educational business this way   Family Leave Policy: The Political Economy of Work and Family in America Steven K.
