Symeon Metaphrastes Christian Høgel, 2002 The first monograph on the most important Byzantine redactor of saints lives this book offers a detailed study of the life and working methods of Symeon Metaphrastes who was active towards the end of the tenth century The importance of the Metaphrastic redaction has often been measured by the amount of damage it did to the late antique hagiographical texts but in the present study it is seen as the culmination of long term developments within this field The Metaphrastic collection is studied in the context of its predecessors and in the gradual changes that occurred in the production of hagiography especially as to the social background of authors commissioners and even saints Emphasis is laid on the gradual redistribution centralisation and upgrading of hagiographical texts that took place in the Greek world And in this process rewriting is seen as a vehicle for a canonisation which even if never instituted in Byzantium was the intention and to some degree the outcome of the Metaphrastic redaction Christian Høgel PhD is research fellow at the Institute for Greek and Latin University of Copenhagen He has formerly published a o Digterjæg et i hellenistisk og augustisk poesi The Poetic I in Hellenistic and Augustan poetry MTF 1992

Classical Rhetoric in English Poetry Brian Vickers, 1989 Back in print after 17 years this is a concise history of rhetoric as it relates to structure genre and style with special reference to English literature and literary criticism from Ancient Greece to the end of the 18th century The core of the book is a quite original argument that the figures of rhetoric were not mere mechanical devices were not as many believed a nuisance a quite sterile appendage to rhetoric to which unaccountably teachers pupils and writers all over the world devoted much labor for over 2 000 years Rather Vickers demonstrates rhetoric was a stylized representation of language and human feelings Vickers supplements his argument through analyses of the rhetorical and emotional structure of four Renaissance poems He also defines 16 of the most common figures of rhetoric citing examples from the classics the Bible and major English poets from Chaucer to Pope
