New Practices - New Pedagogies Malcolm Miles, 2004-11-23 With radical changes happening in arts over the past two decades this book brings us up to date with the social and economic contexts in which the arts are produced Influential and knowledgeable leaders in the field debate how arts education particularly in visual art has changed to meet new needs or shape new futures for its production and reception Opening up areas of thought previously unexplored in arts and education this book introduces students of visual culture performance studies and art and design to broad contextual frameworks new directions in practice and finally gives detailed cases from and insights into a changing pedagogy ABA Journal ,1992-06 The ABA Journal serves the legal profession Qualified recipients are lawyers and judges law students law librarians and associate members of the American Bar Association Standard & Poor's Creditweek ,1985 Financialisation and Development in Asia Toby Carroll, Darryl Jarvis, 2018-11-07 Multilateral development agencies have increasingly focused on underdeveloped Asian countries as potential new sites for financial capital Often referred to as emerging markets these economies are seen as ripe for private sector investment and at the same time in need of foreign capital to support rapid industrialisation modernisation and poverty reduction This confluence of interests suggests a means for quickly closing the development gap primarily through mobilising regulatory institutional and governance reforms designed to reduce barriers to foreign capital institutional inefficiencies and risks to investment capital repatriation and market operation Therefore development agencies now encourage the construction of enabling environments to support market driven development through processes variously identified as financialisation centring on the role of the market and private capital While the state itself has historically occupied a central place in economic development new financialised modes of development are increasingly marginalising the state its influence in the economy and thus its ability to manage developmental outcomes In this volume a collection of leading authors critically assess these developments highlighting the emergence of financialised modes of development and their contested and often problematic nature Drawing upon a series of case studies the contributors explore not just the increasing use of financialised development initiatives but assess critically their implications in terms of the emergent risks costs and inequalities that often accompany them This book was originally published as a special issue of the Asian Studies Review Pharmaceutical Anti-Counterfeiting Mark Davison, 2011-08-04 This book overviews and integrates the business and technical issues that pharmaceutical companies need to know in order to combat the major global problem of counterfeit medicines In addition to discussion of the problems the author Davison addresses analytical techniques scientists use to detect counterfeits and presents some possible solutions to the threat of counterfeit medical products Coverage moves from basic overview of the problem costs risks to consumers toxic products mistrust of drug companies and business revenue loss public trust government oversight and regulation authentication strategies packaging analytical techniques product tracking and supply chain and case studies from around the globe

Big Business and Brazil's Economic Reforms Luiz Kormann,2015-04-17 In the 1990s Brazil launched a comprehensive economic liberalization program It lifted its trade barriers adopted new market oriented regulations opened up its capital market and abandoned earlier efforts to internalize production and to build vertically integrated systems across several sectors of the economy In spite of the visible gap that separated the top global giants from the large local enterprises Brazilian companies seemed to be willing to join in an economic liberalization process that was bound to expose them to unprecedented levels of competition bring about a high degree of uncertainty and in many cases ultimately put their own businesses at risk Big Business and Brazil s Economic Reforms examines the most emblematic aspect of the Brazilian economic reforms the support from parts of the local entrepreneurial class for the opening up of the economy It investigates the reasons why Brazil carried out these economic reforms in the 1990s the transition process and the impact of the opening up of the economy on some of its most important sectors such as the aerospace auto and auto parts food processing oil and petrochemicals ethanol steel telecoms and telecom equipment industries This book offers an in depth analysis of Brazil s distinctive development paths from the Latin American economic thinking of the early stages of its industrialization to the neo liberal stance of the present day It sheds new light on one of the main challenges facing all the large developing economies in their move to become more integrated into the world economy the fostering of large enterprises and is a great resource for students and researchers interested in global business development economics and Latin American economic history
