Sight Out of Mind Dennis Adrian, 1985     H.C. Westermann at War David McCarthy, 2004 This book examines the antiwar work of one American artist in relation to the cultural history of the Cold War The study provides new and detailed information on this important artist while also contributing to the study of masculinity dissent art violence and war in the last half of the twentieth century The study clearly reveals that artists protests against American foreign policy began well before the official U S entry in the Vietnam War and that not all combat veterans looked back fondly on their experience of the Good War Finally in drawing attention to the challenges of being a man in a hostile world Westermann s art enters into a much broader consideration of gender long before this issue became topical in contemporary art director of the American Studies Program at Rhodes College in Tennessee     Joseph E. Yoakum Mark Pascale, Esther Adler (Curator), Édouard Kopp, 2021-01-01 The extraordinary life of a captivating American artist beautifully illustrated with his dreamlike drawings Much of Joseph Elmer Yoakum s story comes from the artist himself and is almost too fantastic to believe At a young age Yoakum 1891 1972 traveled the globe with numerous circuses he later served in a segregated noncombat regiment during World War I before settling in Chicago There inspired by a dream he began his artistic career at age seventy one producing some two thousand drawings over a decade How did Yoakum gain representation in major museum collections in Chicago and New York What fueled his process which he described as a spiritual unfoldment This volume delves into the friendships Yoakum forged with the Chicago Imagists that secured his place in art history explores the religious outlook that may have helped him cope with a racially fractured city and examines his complicated relationship to African American and Native American identities With hundreds of beautiful color reproductions of his dreamlike drawings it offers the most comprehensive study of the artist s work illuminating his vivid and imaginative creativity and giving definition and dimension to his remarkable biography     Art in a Turbulent Era Peter Selz, 1985     Out of the Whirlwind Dore Ashton, 1987
