Sigiriya And The Godking Of Srilanka:

Sigiriya and the God-king of Sri Lanka Piyadasa Wijesinghe, 1997-01-01 Historical outline of Sigiriya Sri Lanka Sri Lanka News, 2000 Art, Architecture, and the Moving Viewer, c. 300-1500 CE, 2022-04-19 Premodern architecture and built environments were fluid spaces whose configurations and meanings were constantly adapting and changing The production of transitory meaning transpired whenever a body or object moved through these dynamic spaces Whether spanning the short duration of a procession or the centuries of a building's longue dure a body or object in motion created in the moment narratives that unfolded through time and space The authors in this volume forge new approaches to architectural studies by focusing on the interaction between monuments artworks and their viewers at different points in space and time Contributors are Christopher A Born Elizabeth Carson Pastan Nicole Corrigan Gillian B Elliott Barbara Franz Anne Heath Philip Jacks Divya Kumar Dumas Brigitte Kurmann Schwarz Ashley J Laverock Susan Leibacher Ward Elodie Leschot Meghan Mattsson McGinnis Michael Sizer Kelly Thor and Laura J Whatley Embodied Violence Kumari Jayawardena, Malathi de Alwis, 1996-11 Embodied Violence is a major investigation into the myriad of ways in which societies play out the struggle for cultural identity on women's bodies Focusing on communal violence it explores how such violence reconfigures women's experiences facilitates the formation of particular identities and the dissemination of specific ideologies and how it positions women vis a vis their communities as well as the State A distinguished cast of contributors explores the relationship between ideals of motherhood tradition community and racial purity and uncovers the ways in which women's bodies become the recording surface of repressive cultural practices and symbolic humiliations Ships and the Development of Maritime Technology on the Indian Ocean Ruth Barnes, David Parkin, 2015-12-22 Recognising the fundamental role both of shipping communities and the technologies crafted and shared by them this book explores the types of ships methods of navigation and modes of water borne trade in the Indian Ocean region and the way they affected the development of distinctive settlements against a changing but strong sense of regional consciousness and identity Concepts of Space, Ancient and Modern Kapila Vatsyayan, 1991 From Bactria to Taprobane Osmund Bopearachchi, 2025-10-27 The second volume of Osmund Bopearachchi has articles and monographs on Central Asian and Indian art South Indian and Sri Lankan art and finally maritime trade in the Indian Ocean While documenting thousands of coins in the Pakistani markets from 1992 onwards Bopearachchi realised that one has to go beyond the traditional approach of simply cataloguing coins and as a result he has made an attempt to link numismatics with sculptural and pictorial iconography His studies on Utpalavarn the courtesan who later became a bhiksuni Buddhist nun and on the earliest iconography of Hindu gods like Iva Brahm Vi'snu and Varha have revolutionised our knowledge of these domains His writings giving the results of the archaeological excavations and explorations carried out by the Department of Archaeology and the French Archaeological Mission in Sri Lanka along the estuaries and rivers provide substantial evidence to indicate that in ancient times large ships could cast anchor in the sea close to river mouths and commodities were taken to inland markets using the rivers and waterways His work also shows how the movements caused by these human activities have amalgamated local traditions with foreign identities and created new forms of art and belief His research on sculptures imported to the island from Amaravati Nagarjunakonda deals with the inspiration of these schools of art over the early forms of Buddhist sculpture in Sri Lanka The different architectural aspects of the royal palace complex of Sigiriya built by King Kassapa 477-95 CE clearly demonstrate that various external ideas and concepts were used to convert this huge lofty rock into a more elaborate harmonious whole in another words a paradise or an Alakamanda

Sigiriya and Its Significance Rajendra Henapala De Silva, 2002 The monumental complex of Sigiriya a UNESCO World Heritage site is located in the central province of Sri Lanka and traditionally has been deemed to be the capital and site of the palace of Kassapa I 5th-6th century AD Drawing on archaeological literary religious and cultural evidence from Sigiriya and from Sri Lanka and India in general Raja de Silva presents a brand new theory on the identity and function of the site Casting doubt on earlier interpretations of the site as a palace or fortress he suggests that Sigiriya was never the abode of a God King but was a long standing monastery built several centuries before the time of Kassapa The paintings for which Sigiriya has long been famous are reinterpreted not as ladies from Kassapa's court but as representations of Tara the most important goddess in Mahayana Buddhism to whom the building was dedicated
