Critics and Poets on Marianne Moore Linda Leavell, Cristanne Miller, Robin G. Schulze, 2005 The first collection of essays about Marianne Moore to appear in fifteen years this book brings together the work of well established Moore scholars such as Patricia C Willis Elizabeth Gregory Cristanne Miller Linda Leavell and Robin G Schulze with that of new contributors to the field The essays in this volume written from a variety of international perspectives range across the most pressing concerns of contemporary literary study and reassert Moore s centrality to a critical and poetic field in which she has been surprisingly marginalized This book also includes poems written by contemporary poets many of them significant contributors to scholarship on Moore as a way of acknowledging the importance of Moore s verse to living writers The poems compliment the scholarly essays by demonstrating in verse the important ways in which Moore s artistic achievements have stimulated her successors

Reading the Middle Generation Anew Eric Haralson,2006-05 Ten original essays by advanced scholars and well published poets address the middle generation of American poets including the familiar Robert Lowell Elizabeth Bishop Randall Jarrell and John Berryman and various important contemporaries Delmore Schwartz Theodore Roethke Robert Hayden and Lorine Niedecker This was a famously troubled cohort of writers for reasons both personal and cultural and collectively their poems give us powerful moving insights into American social life in the transforming decades of the 1940s through the 1960s In addition to having worked during the broad middle of the last century these poets constitute the center of twentieth century American poetry in the larger sense refuting invidious connotations of middle as coming after the great moderns and being superseded by a proliferating postmodern experimentation This middle generation mediates the so called American century and its prodigious body of poetry even as it complicates historical and aesthetic categorizations Taking diverse formal and thematic angles on these poets deconstructionist biographical historical and more formalist accounts this book re examines their between ness and ambivalence their various positionings and repositionings in aesthetic political and personal matters

The essays study the interplay between these writers and such shifting formations as religious discourse consumerism militarism and war the ideology of America as nature s nation and U S race relations and ethnic conflicts Reading the Middle Generation Anew also shows the legacy of the middle generation the ways in which their lives and writings continue to be a shaping force in American poetry This fresh and invigorating collection will be of great interest to literary scholars and poets

The Shipbuilder and Marine Engine-builder ,1929      Also, with My Throat, I Shall Swallow Ten Thousand Swords
Kent Johnson,Javier Alvarez,2005 Poetry In the early 1990s a number of respected US literary journals published the poems of Araki Yasusada a Japanese poet and Hiroshima survivor who turned out to have never existed The most likely author of this hoax if it even is a hoax is probably Kent Johnson For this book Johnson claims that Yasusada was in fact the creation of yet a third writer who uses the pseudonym Tosa Motokiyu and who requested prior to dying in 1996 that his legal identity never be revealed ALSO WITH MY THROAT is a collection of letters in imperfect English that Motokiyu wrote as Yasusada Edited by Kent Johnson and Javier Alvarez this new book might renew some of the many polarizing responses to Yasusada s first appearance This is essentially a criminal act claimed Arthur Vogelsang at the time Carolyn Forché on the other hand argued that Yasusada s writing is an entry into a spiritual space It is a work of art in the largest sense      Chemical News and Journal of Industrial Science ,1897      MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures ,2006
