however leaves Sanditon abruptly in the company of Charlotte's beautiful and enigmatic friend Clara Brereton with whom Sir Edward Denham penniless nephew of the town's patroness and Sgreat lady is in love to his avaricious aunt's displeasure and the town buzzes with rumours of an elopement Anne Toledo has taught English Literature at university level for many years specialising in the nineteenth century novel in general and in Jane Austen in particular She is a devoted Janeite and hopes that this story will appeal to those who share her love and appreciation of Jane Austen's work at all levels as romance as humorous observation and as moral satire and also as a fascinating picture of daily life in middle class England in the years immediately following the Napoleonic wars
