The third edition of Handbook of Marriage and the Family describes, analyzes, synthesizes and critiques the current research and theory about family relationships, family structural variations and the role of families in society. This updated Handbook provides the most comprehensive state of the art assessment of the existing knowledge of family life with particular attention to variations due to gender, socioeconomic, race, ethnic, cultural and life style diversity. The Handbook also aims to provide the best synthesis of our existing scholarship on families that will be a primary source for scholars and professionals but also serve as the primary graduate text for graduate courses on family relationships and the roles of families in society. In addition, the involvement of chapter authors from a variety of fields including family psychology, family sociology, child development, family studies, public health and family therapy gives the Handbook a multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary framework.

Selected Studies in Marriage and the Family Robert Francis Winch, 1974      Handbook of Marriage and the Family Suzanne K. Steinmetz, Marvin B. Sussman, 2013-11-11

The lucid, straightforward Preface of this Handbook by the two editors and the comprehensive perspectives offered in the Introduction by one of them leave little for a Foreword to add. It is therefore limited to two relevant but not intrinsically related points: vis à vis research on marriage and the family in the interval since the first Handbook (Christensen 1964) appeared, namely the impact on this research of the politicization of the New Right and of the Feminist Enlightenment beginning in the mid sixties about the time of the first Handbook. In the late 1930s Willard Waller noted: Fifty years or more ago about 1890 most people had the greatest respect for the institution called the family and wished to learn nothing whatever about it. Everything that concerned the life of men and women and their children was shrouded from the light. Today much of that has been changed. Gone is the concealment of the way in which life begins, gone the irrational sanctity of the home. The aura of sentiment which once protected the family from discussion clings to it no more. We want to learn as much about it as we can and to understand it as thoroughly as possible for there is a rising recognition in America that vast numbers of its families are sick from internal frustrations and from external buffeting. We are engaged in the process of reconstructing our family institutions through criticism and discussion. 1938 pp 3-4
