Alexander, Ron Eyerman, Bernard Giesen, Neil J. Smelser, Piotr Sztompka, 2004-03-22 In this collaboratively authored work five distinguished sociologists develop an ambitious theoretical model of cultural trauma and on this basis build a new understanding of how social groups interact with emotion to create new and binding understandings of social responsibility Looking at the meaning making process as an open ended social dialogue in which strikingly different social narratives vie for influence they outline a strongly constructivist approach to trauma and apply this theoretical model in a series of extensive case studies including the Nazi Holocaust slavery in the United States and September 11 2001 Art Psychotherapy & Narrative Therapy: An Account of Practitioner Research Sheridan Linnell, 2010 This book is a personal political and philosophical exploration of doing both therapy and research an enquiry into how the process of therapy shapes the therapist as well as the client and how the researcher is shaped by her research A guiding theme is Paperbound Books in Print, 1992 Borderline Alexander Kriss, PhD, 2024-04-30 An intimate compassionate and expansive portrait of Borderline Personality Disorder that rejects the conventional wisdom that this condition is untreatable told by a psychologist who specializes in BPD Mental illness is heavily stigmatized within our society and within this already marginalized group folks with BPD are deemed especially untreatable and hopeless When as a graduate student Alex Kriss first began working as a therapist in the field his supervisors warned him that borderline patients were manipulative difficult and had a tendency to drop out of treatment Yet years later when Kriss was establishing his private practice and a borderline patient known as Ana came to his office he felt compelled to try to help her despite all of the warnings he'd heard Borderline is the story of his work with Ana how his successes with her led him to open his doors to other BPD patients and advocate for them Borderline is also the story of the disorder itself Kriss traces accounts of the condition going back to antiquity showing how this disease has been known by many names over the millennia most of them gendered possession hysteria witchcraft moral insanity All referred to a person usually a woman whose behavior and personality were seen as fractured unstable unpredictable and uncontrollable Kriss guides us through this history up through the emergence of psychotherapy the development of the modern diagnosis and attitudes toward treatment today Wong Kar-wai's Ashes of Time Wimal Dissanayake, 2003-06-01 Ashes of Time by the internationally acclaimed director Wong Kar wai has been considered to be one of the most complex and self reflexive of Hong Kong films Loosely based on the stories by renowned martial arts novelist Jin Yong Wong Kar wai has created a very different kind of martial arts film which invites close and sustained study This book presents the nature and significance of Ashes of Time and the reasons for its being regarded as a landmark in Hong Kong cinema Placing the film in historical and cultural context Dissanayake discusses its vision imagery visual style and narrative structure In particular he focuses on the themes of mourning confession fantasy and kung fu movies which enable the reader to gain a deeper and more comprehensive understanding of the film Tact David Russell, 2019-11-19 The social practice of tact was an invention of the nineteenth century a period when Britain was witnessing unprecedented urbanization industrialization and population growth In an era when more and more people lived more closely than ever before with people they knew less and less about tact was a new mode of feeling one's way with others in complex modern conditions In this book David Russell traces how the essay genre came to exemplify this sensuous new ethic and aesthetic Russell argues that the essay form provided the resources for the performance of tact in this period and analyzes its techniques in the writings of Charles Lamb John Stuart Mill Matthew Arnold George Eliot and Walter Pater He shows how their essays offer grounds for a claim about the relationship among art education and human freedom an aesthetic liberalism not encompassed by traditional political philosophy or in literary criticism For these writers tact is not about codes of politeness but about making an art of ordinary encounters with people and objects and evoking the fullest potential in each new encounter Russell demonstrates how their essays serve as a model for a critical handling of the world that is open to surprises and from which egalitarian demands for new relationships are made Offering fresh approaches to thinking about criticism sociability politics and art Tact concludes by following a legacy of essayistic tact to the practice of British psychoanalysts like D W Winnicott and Marion Milner

New Books on Women and Feminism, 1988 Shelley's Goddess Barbara Charlesworth Gelpi, 1992 The subject of Gelpi's new book is the importance of the mother infant relationship in Percy Bysshe Shelley's poetry and life However her book also uses Shelley as a touchstone by which to examine the rich historical and theoretical issues relevant to motherhood in the Romantic period Gelpi offers a detailed account of the historical rise in attention paid to mothering the changing cultural attitudes towards the role of the mother and the resulting effect on the nature of family life She further discusses the psychoanalytic Marxist and developmental approaches to the mother infant relationship particularly to the connection each makes between that relationship and the acquisition of language By combining psychoanalytic poststructuralist and feminist theory with extensive biographical material on Shelley and information on the position of mothers in England after 1790 Gelpi offers an important reassessment of Shelley's avowed feminism and the failure of his utopian vision Choice, 2006
