Solving the Anorexia Puzzle W. Frank Epling, W. David Pierce, 1991

Family Perspective, 1984

The Eating Disorders Barton J. Blinder, Barry F. Chaitin, Renee S. Goldstein, 1988

The Family in Clinical Psychiatry Sidney Bloch, 1994 The Family in Clinical Psychiatry breaks new ground by considering the role of family factors in psychiatric illness This is not another book on family therapy but a comprehensive biopsychosocial account of how family issues are relevant to the assessment and management of every psychiatric illness This book serves as a scholarly and authoritative guide for the clinician facilitating an integrated approach to psychiatric illness This is the first book to acknowledge the importance of the family in clinical psychiatry and will be the standard reference for all psychiatrists and other allied health professionals and trainees

Pediatric Annals, 1992 Adolescents in Families Geoffrey K. Leigh, Gary W. Peterson, 1986 Handbook of Clinical Health Psychology C. Green, R. Meagher, T. Millon, 2012-12-06 We seek to throw down the gauntlet with this handbook challenging the hegemony of the behavioral medicine approach to the psychological study and treatment of the physically ill This volume is not another in that growing surfeit of texts that pledge allegiance to the doctrinaire purity of behavioristic thinking or conceptualize their subject in accord with the sterility of medical models Diseases are not our focus nor is the narrow band of behavioral assessment and therapy methodologies Rather we have sought to redefine this amorphous yet burgeoning field so as to place it squarely within the province of a broadly based psychology specifically the emerging substantive discipline of health psychology and the well established professionalism and diverse technologies of clinical psychology The handbook's title Clinical Health Psychology reflects this reorientation explicitly and Chapter 1 addresses its themes and provides its justifications more fully In the process of developing a relevant and comprehensive health assessment tool the editors were struck by the failure of clinical psychologists to avail themselves of the rich vein of materials that comprise the psychosocial world of the physically ill Perhaps more dismaying was the observation that this field was being mined less than optimally by physicians and nonclinical psychologists The Library Journal Book Review. 1978 R. R. Bowker LLC, 1979 Understanding Anorexia Nervosa and Bulimia, 1983 Fed Up and Hungry Marilyn Lawrence, 1987 This collection expands on Susie Orbach's claim that obsessive eating or non eating behavior is an individual albeit political response to a complex set of social circumstances in which women find themselves Theoretical pieces here bolster her views exploring the neopuritanical replacement of sex by food compulsive eating as anger and symmetries between the bulimic and anorexic internalization of ego boundaries and strategies for control Essays highlighting alternative therapies are full of case references and the compelling voices of sufferers Eating Disorders Jill Elka Harkaway, 1987
