Cutcliffe, José Santos, Paul S. Links, Juveria Zaheer, Henry G. Harder, Frank Campbell, Rod McCormick, Kari Harder, Yvonne Bergmans, Rahel Eynan, 2013-10-15 Suicide remains one of the most pressing public health concerns across the world Expensive in terms of the human cost and associated suffering the economic costs the social costs and the spiritual costs it affects millions of people every year This important reference work collects together a wide range of research around suicide and suicide prevention in order to guide future research and provide guidance for professionals about the best way to respond meaningfully to suicidal patients Responding to the need for multi disciplinary and international research to deepen our understanding of suicide it demonstrates where our knowledge is firmly evidence based and where new areas for research are emerging as well as highlighting where we know little Divided into six parts each with its own editorial introduction and commentary it explores research with and about survivors of suicide and indigenous populations The remaining sections look at suicide focused research in psychiatric nursing psychiatry psychology and social work and allied health It is of interest to all advanced students practitioners and scholars interested in suicide and its impact and prevention      Personal Persistence, Identity Development, and Suicide: a Study of Native and Non-native North American Adolescents ,2003      Handbook of Child Psychology and Developmental Science, Theory and Method ,2015-03-31 The essential reference for human development theory updated and reconceptualized The Handbook of Child Psychology and Developmental Science a four volume reference is the field defining work to which all others are compared First published in 1946 and now in its Seventh Edition the Handbook has long been considered the definitive guide to the field of developmental science Volume 1 Theory and Method presents a rich mix of classic and contemporary theoretical perspectives but the dominant views throughout are marked by an emphasis on the dynamic interplay of all facets of the developmental system across the life span incorporating the range of biological cognitive emotional social cultural and ecological levels of analysis Examples of the theoretical approaches discussed in the volume include those pertinent to human evolution self regulation the development of dynamic skills and positive youth development The research methodological and applied implications of the theoretical models discussed in the volume are presented Understand the contributions of biology person and context to development within the embodied ecological system Discover the relations among individual the social world culture and history that constitute human development Examine the methods of dynamic developmental research Learn person oriented methodological approaches to assessing developmental change The scholarship within this volume and as well across the four volumes of this edition illustrate that developmental science is in the midst of a very exciting period There is a paradigm shift that involves increasingly greater understanding of how to describe explain and optimize the course of human life for diverse individuals living within diverse contexts This Handbook is the definitive reference for educators policy makers researchers students and practitioners in human development psychology sociology anthropology and neuroscience

Start Making Sense Steven J. Heine, 2025-01-28 A beautiful deep thoughtful Angela Duckworth New York Times bestselling author of Grit investigation into the science of why we crave meaning and how we can pursue it in this age of anxiety These days everyone feels on edge panicked by climate change political polarization and artificial intelligence In Start Making Sense psychologist Steven J Heine shows how to overcome our angst and live life with purpose Heine s field existential psychology uses the tools of science to study the kinds of questions famously asked by existential philosophers such as Albert Camus Jean Paul Sartre and Simone de Beauvoir Who are we Why do we seek meaning How do we connect with one another Drawing on decades of research Heine provides scientifically grounded answers to these mysteries He shows that humans evolved to seek meaning our survival depends on our ability to make sense of an absurd world Every day we deploy an arsenal of psychological tactics to make and maintain meaning in our lives from rationalizing our choices to waxing nostalgic about the past to defending our cultural worldviews By understanding why and how we seek to make sense we can live authentic lives in times that don t seem to make sense at all This illuminating book transforms the way we understand our search for meaning and provides a blueprint for building a better life
