Voices from the Global Margin William P. Mitchell, 2021 Voices from the Global Margin looks behind the generalities of debates about globalization to explore the personal impact of global forces on the Peruvian poor In this highly readable ethnography William Mitchell draws on the narratives of people he has known for forty years offering deep insight into how they have coped with extreme poverty and rapid population growth and their creation of new lives and customs in the process In their own passionate words they describe their struggles to make ends meet many abandoning rural homes for marginal wages in Lima and the United States They chronicle their terror during the Shining Path guerrilla war and the government's violent military response Mitchell's long experience as an anthropologist living with the people he writes about allows him to put the stories in context helping readers understand the impact of the larger world on individuals and their communities His book reckons up the human costs of the global economy urging us to work toward a more just world

Fujimori's Peru John Crabtree, 1998 This book provides an evaluation of Peruvian politics and economics in the 1990s on the evidence available up until the end of 1997 The purpose is twofold to detect continuities and discontinuities between the Fujimori period and earlier ones and to offer an answer however tentative to the question of whether the Fujimori government has laid the basis for greater future stability The answers to these questions are mixed There appear to be more continuities than many suppose even though

1990 in many ways was a turning point And while the Fujimori government helped provide a more stable context than the one it inherited it is by no means clear that the changes it has brought about will prove sustainable over the longer run The political model looks particularly brittle The contributors are Luis Abugatt s Elena Alvarez Javier de Bela nde John Crabtree Carlos Iv n Degregori Francisco Durand Adolfo Figueroa Ra l Hopkins Javier Igu iz Drago Kisic Enrique Obando Martin Tanaka Jim Thomas and Rosemary Thorp John Crabtree is a researcher at Oxford Analytica and a visiting research fellow at the Institute of Latin American Studies University of London
